SCIENCE, ORIGINIS, & ANCIENT CIVILIZATIONS
Scientific Evidence Withheld from School Textbooks

In addition to hundreds of references to Scientific Evidence that supports the Bible, which is withheld from school textbooks, this book also examines Ancient Civilizations and their relationship to Babylon and ancient knowledge. God's Word ends with the Rev. 17 reference in capital letters to the MYSTERY being exposed at the end of time. That time has arrived. Chapters include: The Universe & Solar System * Geology * Radiometric & Carbon 14 Dating * Fossils & Humans * Language & Race * Civilizations & Knowledge * A Date for Christ's Birth * Islam & Prophecy *

God's Plan / Satan's Plan - Why are the most renowned of man's wonders (which were at the center of both the Old and New Testaments), not even mentioned in God's Word? The Great Pyramid and Sphinx are but one of numerous imitations which Satan uses to deceive people. What exactly is the Great Pyramid an imitation of? Explore how Satan imitates God. Chapters include: * The Two Creations (Genesis 1-3) * Predestination * Original Sin * Zodiac-God's Story Perverted * The Fertile Crescent Timeline * The Queen of Heaven-False Religions * Daniels 70th Week flow Chart * Earth Timeline Chart * The Exodus & the Real Mt. Sinai * Final States-Biblically defines Spirit & Soul * Trinity Defined * Marriage & Divorce-God's plan of Salvation * The 3 Lies *

Revelation & End Times - No one knows the Day of Christ's return. But, Christ, in His own words in Scripture, does give us the exact window of time during which He will return, and we are now living in that window of time. A verse-by-verse study of the book of Revelation, End Time events, our place in eternity, and Prophecy. Chapters include: Rapture & Resurrection * Salvation-how you get it--can you loose it? * Zodiac--God's story perverted * The Feasts of Israel--prophecy of Jesus * Daniel's 70th Week flow Chart * Final States--Biblically defines Soul and Spirit * The Millennium--a time for gleaning * The Temple in the Millennium *

Eden to Evil Scripture study verses: see the Book EDEN TO EVIL at Target Truth Ministries.com

Genesis 1:1 – Written in the “perfect tense” meaning that this is a completed action—that this verse stands alone. What follows are details of the creation. Which creation account should come next? See the book Eden to Evil--Target Truth Ministries.com

Genesis 2:1 – All the host of BOTH heaven and earth are finished at the end of the 7-days. Host - armies of peoples...multitudes of beings

Duet. 32:7-8 – God established the nations according to the number of the “sons of God” (angels), not “children of Israel.”

The numbers of the fallen angels determines the nations of the earth.

Job 38:1-8 – God “laid” (remade – asah) the earth. All the sons of God (angels-host) sang. The host are watching and singing from Eden as the 7 day recreation takes place.

Psalms. 51:5 and 58:3 – Brought forth in iniquity (sin) – we are sinners at conception.

Psalms. 139:16 – Preordained before conception--“when we were yet unformed.”

Jer. 1:5 – God knew us before conception.

Ezek. 28:13-14 – Created in the garden of Eden and existed with other stones, and we fell.

Ezek. 31:9-18 - Created in the garden of Eden and existed with the other trees, and we fell.

Luke 15 - Lost sheep...lost coin...lost son--all lost and to be restored, redeemed, reconciled--which means they all had previously been with the owner before being lost.

John 1:11-13 – God came to those who were to be saved (predestined from Eden), and even these did not receive Him. Even the disciples are sinners...however, eventually many will be led by the Holy Spirit to trust in Him.

John 3:18 – We are already condemned at conception—judged already...now saved by grace.

John 17:5-7 – Verse 6—“they were yours.” Verse 5—“before the world was.”

Romans 1:21 – We knew God, and did not honor Him—in the past...in Eden...and we fell.

Romans 3:10-12, 23 – Together we have all sinned (in the past sometime).

Romans 5:12 – We all sinned (past tense), and sin entered this world with Adam.

Romans 5:19 - Many were made sinners. Adam and Eve sinned, and many fell...not all (Rev. 12:1-4). This happened in Eden, because in this world we know ALL are sinners.

Romans 8:29-30 – God knew us before this world (foreknew), and will call us back to Him (predestined).

Romans 11:2 – God is not done with us—He knew us before this world (foreknew).

Gal. 4:4-5 – Jesus came to redeem...to purchase back the lost with His blood.

Eph. 1:4-5, 11 – Before the foundation of this world...God knew us.

2 Tim. 1:9 – Before the world began...before this age.

Titus 1:2 – The hope of eternal life promised before this world began...God knew us and we fell.

1 Peter 2:24-25 – “Healed” is spiritual healing in the Greek (2390)...physical healing is 2323. Healed to be returned to the shepherd—we were once with the flock (John 10:16).

Revelation 12:1-4 - One third of the heavenly host fell – This woman represents the BRIDE...included Israel and all nations.

Eden to Evil Comments

Many people use the phrase...”born in sin” or “conceived in sin – see Eden to Evil. Concerning whether we are sinners at conception, and also whether Jesus was a sinner because He came from the womb of Mary (a sinner as well), let us check the Scriptures.

Many people use the phrase...”born in sin” or “conceived in sin.” What exactly does this phrase mean? Was Jesus born “in” sin? Does Jesus being born “in” sin mean that Jesus was sinful? Are we born “in” sin? Are we sinners due to our parents sin--going back to Adam? OR...am I personally responsible for my own sin in the past as is states in Rom. 5:12?

If this phrase means that Jesus was born “from” a human who was a sinner (Mary), then I can agree with it. Mary was a sinner as we all are (Rom. 5:12). [Of course, the Catholic Church teaches that Mary herself was immaculate and free of original sin in order to birth Jesus free from any sin.] If this phrase means that Jesus was born “as” a sinner, then I would disagree. God uniquely prepared a flesh human within Mary’s womb and did not use either the egg of Mary, or the sperm of Joseph (Matt. 1:18--of, or by, the Holy Spirit) (Matt. 1:20--conceived--of, from, out of, the Holy Spirit). Mary delivered Jesus to this world, but God the Holy Spirit prepared and created Jesus as a unique, sinless, fully flesh, human (Heb. 2:14). We are born “in” sin, or “as” a sinner--yes--due to our sin in the past (Rom. 5:12).

Luke 1:35...God uniquely prepared a human within Mary’s womb. God conceived, created Jesus...not from Mary’s egg or Joseph’s sperm, but from the creative power of the Holy Spirit.

John 1:14...the Word (Logos--Jesus), became flesh and dwelt among us. Jesus existed before all things (John 1:1-2). All things are created from the Word, even His flesh. Apart from Jesus nothing comes into being (Col. 1:16). See “Logos” message at Target Truth Ministires.com.

John 3:16-18...”only begotten” means a “unique” creation of flesh. The term “only begotten” actually means “unique”--a unique creation of flesh by God.

The purpose of Jesus being created a flesh human was because only a blood flesh death will be recognized by God as payment for sin. And because our sin was against an eternal, sinless, perfect creator God...the payment requires an eternal, sinless, perfect creator’s death to redeem us.

We humans have all sinned in the past (Rom. 5:12). We are therefore lost to God and His kingdom. Even Jesus’ parables speak of the lost...which means we were at one time known by God and then lost prior to His efforts today to reclaim us (Luke 15). We were lost prior to our birth. We are lost in this world. God wants to be restored to us...thus His sacrifice to accomplish that restoration.

Here are some passages which point to our being sinful before birth...

Psalm 51:5--sinful from conception --“in” sin conceived--meaning we sinned in the past (Rom. 5:12)--we don’t inherit our parents sin.

Psalm 58:3--from the womb we are all sinful...because all are sinners--past tense (Rom. 5:12).

Psalm 139:13-16--we are wonderfully made from time before our conception--even as sinners before our conception, God has a plan to reconcile with us.

Jer. 1:5--before our conception, God knew us. Jeremiah knew he was a sinner even before conception.

Numb. 14:18, and Ezek. 18:20--we do not inherit the sin of our parents--we are guilty of our own sin and sentenced to die (born flesh--Rom 5:12).

Eph. 1:4-5, 11--before the foundation of the earth, God knew each of us.

Rom. 3:10-11, 23--all are sinners...not one is innocent.

Rom. 5:12--death is required of all because we all sinned in the past.

Rom. 5:19--through the sin of one man (Adam), many were made sinners (not all--yet we know all born in this age are sinners). God’s plan of redemption begins with Adam, and only those who sinned in the past (the many) will be born into this age of flesh and death (Rom. 5:12). Only 1/3rd of the angels fell (Rev. 12:1-4). Most remain with God.

This (and much more) is all discussed in my book Eden to Evil, as well as what is not taught in schools today concerning Science and Origins (Science, Origins, & Ancient Civilizations). AND, an excerpt of both books can be read for FREE on our web site--Target Truth Ministries.com.

HEAVEN AND EARTH.....THE FALL.....THE REDEMPTION.....THE JUDGEMENT.....NEW HEAVEN AND EARTH

SUBJECT	REFERENCE
ORIGINAL CREATION PARADISE Eden BARA	Gen. 2:4-25 God's name J YHWH (J in German) Yhovah (Jehovah). This is the EDEN narrative. Gen. 1:1 God's name E Elohim (Lord God). This verse appears to be part of the 7-day narrative, but refers to the "original" creation. This verse is written in the "perfect tense" meaning a completed action. This verse should be read as separate from verse 2 in Chapter 1 (perhaps by concluding the sentence-or by using the word "but"—not the word "and"—see comments on Gen. 1:2, after the fall). Rev. 12:1-2 Jesus' revelation to John—Host of heaven (woman is the BRIDE - 12 stars (in Hebrew 12 is a "complete" or "perfect" number—the betrothed – all the host – Israel and all nations) portrayed in paradise (from which Christ would come). Verses 3-4 state that one-third of the host of heaven will fall—we are fallen (Rom. 5:12 "all have sinned"). Eph. 1:4-5, 11 God knew us before the foundation of the earth. We are seen in Scripture as the trees in Eden (Ez 31). In this original creation the Hebrew word "bara" (original creation) is used – God's name is YHWH – Adam is created first, and then Eve later – Plants are created after Adam – There is no sea, sun, moon, or stars. (See the book "Eden to Evil" at Target Truth Ministries.com)
THE FALL FROM PARADISE (Sin entered Eden)	Gen. 3:1-24: The fall of God's Children—the host of heaven. Rev. 12:3-4: Satan deceived one-third of God's heavenly host. Two thirds remain true to God. Ezek. 28:12-19, Ezek. 31; Isa. 14:12-19: Satan and heavenly host in Eden (Stones and Trees are "beings"--over one-third of references to trees in the Bible are to people). Sin entered Eden through Satan (not Adam), and many were deceived and fell. Job 38:1-18: After the fall, the host of heaven (sons of God, angels, morning stars), sang together with joy before the foundation of the earth we now inhabit—this earth age. Eph. 1:4-5, 11--God knew us before the earth. Deut. 32:8: Hebrew Septuagint states that God established the nations according to the number of the fallen "angels." Gen. 1:2: This verse is the beginning of the 7-day account, because it refers to the earth being formless (Hebrew "tohu wabohu"). God did not create the earth formless; it became that way (Isa. 45:18-"tohu wabohu"), after the fall in Eden.
CREATION (ASAH) of this earth age The 7-day event (Sin entered this age)	Gen. 1:3-2:3: The 7-Day creation narrative of this earth age. In this re-creation, the Hebrew word "asah" (made of existing materials) is mostly used – God's name is Elohim – E. Man and woman are made together – Plants are made before man – There is a sea, and the sun, moon, and stars are re-made. Rom. 5:12: Sin entered this age through Adam (not Satan), whereas sin entered Eden through Satan.
These two creation accounts, both of God, are both true. Tradition today places Eden in Day 6--this age.
ADAM AND EVE CAIN AND ABEL	Gen. 4:1: Generations of Cain (In the Greek myth, Cain leads to Nimrod and the way of the serpent who enlightened man). (See Queen of Heaven study section on Greece, or the books: "Science, Origin, & Ancient Civilizations," "God's Plan/Satan's Plan," or "Eden to Evil" at Target Truth Ministries.com) (See study on Predestination and Early Christian Doctrines, and books: "Eden to Evil," or "God's Plan/Satan's Plan" at Target Truth Ministries.com)
GENERATIONS To CHRIST	Gen. 5:1: Generations of Adam (In the Greek myth, Adam leads to Seth, and God's way, and does not elevate man enough)
GOD'S PLAN	All people are supposed to hear God's Word and plan of redemption through Adam and Eve. God's plan of salvation is given in the Zodiac (See Zodiac study, or books: "God's Plan/Satan's Plan," or 'Revelation, Apostasy, End-Times, & "This Generation"' at Target Truth Ministries.com).

Compare the modern western view with the view of the early Christians prior to the fourth century:

Modern Conventional View (Greek – Western) From the fourth century to today	Hebrew/Early Christian View (Jewish – Eastern) From the time of Jesus until the fourth century
God created the Heavens (plural) and the Earth (Gen. 1:1 – NAS, NIV).	God created the Heaven (single) and the Earth (Gen. 1:1 -- KJV).
God created the host (beings) of Heaven (Job 38:1-18 ; Psalm 33:6-9; Rev. 12:1-2; Eph. 1:4-5, 11)	God created the host (beings) of Heaven / Eden (Psalm 33:6-9; Rev. 12:1-2; Eph. 1:4-5, 11)
Earth is formless and void “ tohu wabohu ” (Gen. 1:2) (But, Isa. 45:18 says earth was not created “ tohu wabohu ”)	God gives the description of all the host (beings) of Heaven & Eden (Gen. 2-3; Job 33:4-6; Rev. 12:1-2)
The creation – a 7-day account (Genesis 1:3-2:3) (In this conventional view—Eden is part of day 6 of the 7-day creation account)	God gives the story of the fall of many beings. Sin enters Paradise (Eden) through Satan (Gen. 3; Ezek. 28:12-19, Ezek. 31; Isa. 14:12-19; Rev. 12:3-4).
Day 6—man and woman are created (Gen. 1:26-27) (supposedly Eden – many conflicts – Gen. 2:5-3:24)	Transition between creation accounts (Genesis 2:4). Biblically, creation narrative should go from Eden (paradise) to the 7-Day account.
All creation, including the host (beings) of Heaven, and of earth, are finished (Gen. 2:1; Eph. 1:4-5, 11). (Some believe babies born today are a new creation ?)	The earth becomes formless and void “ tohu wabohu ”- (Gen.1:2; Isa. 45:12—earth re-made (asah) & mortal humans created (bara). Isa. 45:18—earth not created “ tohu wabohu ”. Job 38:1-18 where host of heaven witness earth being re-made).
Transition between creation accounts (Genesis 2:4) from the 7-day to the Eden (Paradise) creation account (Gen. 2:5-3:24). Eden & the fall are part of day 6.	Adam and Eve, and 1/3 rd of the host, are all to be banished to the cursed earth (Gen. 3; Rev. 12:3-4). We are the “other sheep” (John 10:16—the fold is heaven)
Adam and Eve and others are banished to the cursed earth due to the fall (Gen. 3; Rev. 12:3-4). The age of Grace begins.	All creation, including the host (beings) of Heaven, and of earth, are finished (Gen. 2:1). Babies are not a new creation (Eph. 1:4-5, 11; Rom. 8:28-30). From the fallen host, Adam & Eve are selected to begin The age of Grace.
Sin enters this world through Adam (Rom. 5:12), not Satan	Sin enters this world through Adam (Rom. 5:12), not Satan
God will establish the nations of the world according to the number of the fallen angels of God cast out to earth (Deut. 32:7-8 – Septuagint ; Rev. 12:1-4)	God will establish the nations of the world according to the number of the fallen angels of God cast out to earth (Deut. 32:7-8 – Septuagint ; Rev. 12:1-4)
This world is Satan’s domain (Job 1:7; Matt. 4:8-10; Luke 22:31-32; John 12:31; Rom. 8:20-22; 2 Corin. 4:4; Eph. 2:2; 1 John 4:4).	This world is Satan’s domain (Job 1:7; Matt. 4:8-10; Luke 22:31-32; John 12:31; Rom. 8:20-22; 2 Corin. 4:4; Eph. 2:2; 1 John 4:4).
It is thought that children now born flesh, receive the sin of Adam (Bible reference ?). How? Why?	Children now born flesh are responsible for their own sin, due to their following Satan in Eden (Gen. 3; Rev.12:3-4; John 3:1-7, 10:16—the fold is heaven).
Children are seen as innocent until some “age of accountability” (Rom. 7:9 ?). Nevertheless , death reigns (Rom. 5:14, 6:23).	Children are sinners and condemned at conception because of sin in Eden (Jn. 3:18; Rom. 1:21-32, 6:23; Psalm 51:5, Psalm 58:3; Rev. 12:3-4).
When we knew God, we denied God (Rom. 1:20-21). No one knows or seeks God (Rom. 3:10-12). We are all dead in our relationship with God (Eph. 2:1-5).	When we knew God, we denied God (Rom. 1:20-21). No one seeks God (Rom. 3:10-12). We are all dead in our relationship with God in this age (Eph. 2:1-5).
God leads some to salvation. Those not led, remain condemned (Psalm 14:1-3; Jn. 6:44-45, 15:16—God chooses, not us). What is the reason some are chosen to be saved?	God leads some to salvation. Those not led, remain condemned (Psalm 14:1-3; Jn. 6:44-45, 15:16). The reason some chosen? Some in Eden showed shame (Gen. 3:7-8), others contempt (Satan).
The elect cannot deny God...Jesus will not lose any (Jn. 6:39).	The elect cannot deny God...Jesus will not lose any (Jn. 6:39).
If “born again,” we can be reconciled back into a relationship with God (Jn. 3:1-7; Rom. 5:10-11). When did we have a previous relationship with God, which allows us to be reconciled back? (Ezek. 31; Rom. 1:20-21; Eph. 1:4-5, 11; Rev. 12:1-4).	If “born again,” we can be reconciled back into a relationship with God, based upon to our previous relationship with God in Eden (Jn. 3:1-7; Rom. 1:20-21, 5:10-12; Eph. 1:4-5, 11; Gen. 2-3; Ezek. 31; Rev. 12:1-4).
Summary – I am declared a sinner at conception, and must be “born again.” Adam is responsible. God is seen as arbitrary - the sequence confusing. Scriptural conflicts exist.	Summary – I was created, and once was with God in Eden, but have fallen, and must be “born again” – I am responsible. God is loving, forgiving, and merciful. Scripture agrees with Scripture.

GOD’S PLAN for redemption is fumbled by humans. God must destroy all life on earth, as it is corrupted by Satan—even the babies (see Giants Study and also Pagan God’s Study at Target Truth Ministires.com.) God’s plan of salvation is given in the Zodiac (See study on the Zodiac or books: “God’s Plan/Satan’s Plan,” or “Revelation, Apostasy, End-Times, & This Generation” at Target Truth Ministries.com.

4200 B.C.	Cain and Abel – God's plan of salvation and redemption first told in the Zodiac and by Adam and Eve. (See study on the ZODIAC , or books: “ God’s Plan/Satan’s Plan ,” or ‘ Revelation, Apostasy, & End Times & “This Generation” ’ at Target Truth Ministries.com)
1660 B.C.	Joseph in Goshen / Avaris / Rameses area under Pharaoh Amenemhat III—possibly Hyksos rule. Archeology has identified 17 sites in both Egypt and Siani showing Hebrew like words along with Egyptian hieroglyphics. (see page 1 for Hebrew writing).
1450 B.C.	Moses receives the Torah (see page 1 here) – spent 40 days on the mountain with God to learn the Torah – Moses wrote the Torah – Ex. 24:4 - writings would have been kept by the tribes. Ex. 17:14 and Deut. 31:24-26, John 5:46-47 all indicate it was in written form from the beginning. What other proofs might there be of the Bible?—see Study on Great Prophecies of the Bible —Target Truth Ministries.com
970 B.C.	1 Kings 6:1 and Solomon refer to Moses -- Ex. 17:14 and Deut. 31:24-26, indicate the Bible was in written form from the Exodus.
722 B.C.	Israel , in the north, conquered by Assyria – Capitol of Israel was Samaria – tribes scattered.
609 B.C.	King Josiah drafted the first writings of Torah , according to the Tel Aviv institute of Archeology – Dr. Finkelstein in the 1990’s. However, as of 2020 and new archeological evidence from both Egypt and the Saini, these theories of the documentary hypothesis (JEDP) have been disproven, and evidence now supports Moses actually writing the Torah himself (see page 1 here for details).
587 B.C.	Judah , in the south, is conquered by Babylon. During the exile, the Talmud (commentaries on the Torah), were written in Babylon between 586 and 539 B.C. Capitol of Judah was Jerusalem. (See 400 A.D. – Palestinian Talmud)
538 B.C.	Zerubbabel and a group return to Jerusalem and begin the Jerusalem Talmud .
520 B.C.	Second temple is completed.
450 B.C.	Ezra, and then Nehemiah, return from Babylon to Jerusalem
285-150 B.C.	The Hebrew Torah (Pentateuch), is translated into Greek under Ptolemy, in Alexandria (in Egypt), and is completed by 246 B.C. from the old Hebrew text (not the Masoretic Hebrew, which is the traditional text today. Masoretic text differs slightly from the Dead Sea Scrolls—see 700 A.D.). The Jewish people in Alexandria lost the ability to read Hebrew, and needed Greek. The Septuagint, LXX was created when 72 scholars translated all the books of the Old Testament (except Esther), into Greek from Hebrew, including the Apocrypha (Jewish History – Maccabees – not recognized by Jewish rabbis, and not included in Jewish Bible – the Old Testament. Apocrypha recorded only in Greek and picked up by Roman church and included in Catholic Bible in 1546 A.D.). NOTE: Some argue that Jesus and apostles did not have all Old Testament books as a Greek Septuagint. Rather, the Septuagint was of the Torah only , called the Pentateuch, and Jesus and the apostles used various other manuscripts – Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek. Some argue that the so-called complete Greek Septuagint was actually the 5 th column of Origen’s 6-column Hexapla (230 A.D.) . However, several Jewish texts from the third century B.C. cite the Septuagint with all books as already done.
200 B.C.	Writings of all the Old Testament (except Esther), from this date, in original Hebrew, are discovered in 1948 (Dead Sea Scrolls).
150 B.C.	Historian Eupolemus wrote “Moses first imported grammar to the Jews, then the Phoenicians received it from the Jews, then the Greeks.”

33 A.D.	Following the resurrection of Jesus, Peter is the first to proclaim Gospel to Jews, and first to proclaim Gospel to Gentiles at home of Cornelius (Acts 1-2, 10). Peter and John are the early co-leaders (Acts 3 & 4) – Gentiles told they must obey Jewish Law by Peter – Peter called a hypocrite (Gal. 2:11-13). Peter recognizes God's grace trumps the law (Acts 11:1-18).
44 A.D.	James became the first leader of the Christian Church (Acts 12:17, Acts 15:13-19). According to Dr. Thomas Noble, Professor of History at Notre Dame University, in his book " Pope and the Papacy ," Peter was in Jerusalem under James, and then went onto Antioch and Corinth. Peter didn't arrive in Rome until many years after the Council of Jerusalem (Acts 15). Peter did not found the Roman Christian community, as it already existed when Peter arrived.
48 A.D.	Paul begins 3 missionary journeys and writes 13 letters to the new churches – Paul was converted 3 years after Jesus rose from the dead. (Acts 1:1-8; 1 Corinthians 15:1-8)
49-50 A.D.	Council of Jerusalem (Acts 15), is called by the church leader of Jerusalem, James, the half-brother of Jesus (Acts 12:17, Acts 15:13-19). Gentiles accepted without need to follow Jewish laws. Peter was under the leader of Jerusalem – James. The process of canonization was at work from the very beginning. The first churches were exhorted to select only the authentic apostolic writings. When a book was verified as authentic, either by signature, or by apostolic envoy, it was officially read to the church and then circulated among other churches. Collections of these apostolic writings began to take form in apostolic times. By the end of the first century, all twenty-seven New Testament books were written and received by various churches somewhere, yet no universal set of writings for all churches everywhere would be established for some time.
62 A.D.	James is killed.
67-68 A.D.	Peter and Paul both are executed by Nero.
70 A.D.	Temple in Jerusalem destroyed, fulfilling the prophecy of Jesus (Matt. 24:2). Yet, none of the New Testament books mention the fulfilled prophecy, leading to the understanding today that all New Testament books were written before 70 A.D., perhaps even Revelation (although Justin Martyr and all early church agree evidence shows John wrote Revelation in 81-96 A.D.). Patmos was a Roman prison colony during reign of Domitian, 81-96 A.D. Christians flee to Alexandria, Carthage, Rome, and Antioch, which now becomes the center for Christianity.
85-150 A.D.	The year 150 A.D. is the earliest evidence of the bishop structure. Early church fathers writings: Barnabas, Clement of Rome, Ignatius, Polycarp. All bishops, each in a different geographic area, were of equal position and authority, and together they eventually united and adopted the biblical text and doctrines recognized by all Christianity. Each voted to include, or reject writings to be included in the recognized text. Only books which all accepted were included in the New Testament. Others were simply not of high enough authenticity to be agreed upon by all the church fathers or bishops. Clement of Rome emphasized the need for obedience to the area bishops, in order to guarantee unity. He believed in the perpetual virginity of Mary, but not all did, so it was not made a doctrine.

90 A.D.	Rise of Gnostic Docetism (Jesus not human). This causes need to defend Scripture and form an agreed upon accepted set of manuscripts
100 A.D.	Apostle John dies. Clement of Rome states triune nature of God. Aramaic Targums completed. The Jewish people from Babylon lost the ability to read Hebrew. By this date, writings of Mark and Matthew and Paul were being used by the churches and quoted in writings of Polycarp and Ignatius.
107 A.D.	Ignatius, the leader of the Antioch church in Syria, is killed. He opposed Gnostic and Docetic heresies. Gnostics are linked with Greek mythology which says there is no material body beyond this life. Gnostics believed flesh and matter were evil and Jesus was not human. Ignatius agreed with Clement of Rome that there is a need to obey area bishops, in order to maintain the unity of the Christian faith.
140-144 A.D.	Marcion puts together his personal canon, rejecting the Old Testament and any New Testament writings linked to the Old Testament. This caused the bishops of all areas to begin to develop an agreed canon.
155 A.D.	Justin Martyr rebuts Greek philosophies and wrote that Scripture offered truth, and that Greek religions were myths.
155 A.D.	Polycarp – Bishop of Smyrna and disciple of John, is killed.
170 A.D.	The first “canon”, or “accepted” writings, were put together and used by the church of Rome – “ Muratorian Canon ,” included the four Gospels, Acts, Paul’s letters, 1 – 3 John, and the Revelation of John.
172 A.D.	Montanism – a priest and his two prophetesses (Priscilla and Maximillia) insists gifts given to Jewish apostles of prophecies and tongues were still available. This was condemned by the bishops and essentially died out until 1758 when the new charismatic movement began (See study “ Tongues, Prophecies, & Healing ” at Target Truth Ministries.com)
180 A.D.	Irenaeus of Lyons, a student of Polycarp, lists 20 of the New Testament books as officially accepted and recognized as authoritative.
180 A.D.	The Roman church declared itself the leader, due to double apostleship (Peter & Paul), but no bishops recognized them.
196 A.D.	Easter controversy splits the western churches from the eastern churches. The west focuses on Sunday and the resurrection, and the east focuses on Passover and Christ’s sacrifice. Old Latin Translation Canon for the western church is missing the eastern texts of James and 1 & 2 Peter (See 340 A.D. for eastern churches and the Old Syriac Translation Canon).
200 A.D.	The Jewish Mishnah is written – the early Jewish commentaries on the Torah (from 400 B.C. to 200 A.D.). The Mishnah will be later combined with the Gemara (later commentaries—400 A.D.) into the Talmud (400-500 A.D.).
215 A.D.	Clement of Alexandria dies.
220-250 A.D.	Origen, student of Clement – founded school in Caesarea and compiles the Hexapla (6 column parallel translation). The 5 th column (Greek Theodotian), is regarded as his understanding. The other columns are from the Greek Aquila, Greek Symmachus, Hebrew texts, transliterated Hebrew, and Septuagint.
250 A.D.	Pupais – Bishop of Herapolis in Phrygia – records the records from older Christians who actually knew the apostles.

254 A.D.	Stephen I was the first bishop to refer to the “Chair of Peter” as authority over the church.
267 A.D.	Counsel of Antioch – rejects Modalism (Jesus is part God & part human—not “fully” Col. 1:19).
285-340 A.D.	Roman emperor Diocletian persecutes Christians and orders all Christian meetings to stop, the destruction of all churches, the imprisonment of Christians, and the burning of all Scripture . This forced the bishops to begin to adopt an agreed upon canon to be preserved. The church was being persecuted by Rome, and also by false teachings within the church.
295 A.D.	The phrase “ catholic ” is used to mean all churches that agree with the whole apostolic teaching, as opposed to heretical groups that follow a “secret revelation,” or “secret knowledge,” based upon only one teaching. The churches agreed on Christ and on various Scriptures at this point. The only agreed upon sacraments were baptism and the Lord’s Supper. Various traditions and other sacraments were not agreed to, as yet.
313 A.D.	Constantine allows freedom of worship in the Western Empire. He declares Sunday as the official day of worship and declares December 25 th as the birthday of Jesus and all divinity, as Nimrod was born on this date, according to tradition (see Birth of Christ study at Target Truth Ministries.com).
325 A.D.	Council of Nicea – 303 Bishops voted on the understanding of the Trinity. 300 agreed and 3 denied Jesus as fully human, and fully God. Some report 318 yes, and 5 no.
330 A.D.	The capitol of the Roman Empire is established – Constantinople, Turkey.
340 A.D.	Eusebius of Caesarea compiled history which is considered to be the best source of Christianity for the first 300 years. Eusebius was hired by Constantine to produce 50 copies of texts, or canon of Scripture, to unite all Rome – the pagans, the Gnostics, Christians, and Jews. One theory is that Eusebius used Origen’s Hexapla (220 A.D.), to make various texts to appeal to various groups, and that two of these remain today: The Sinaiticus and the Vaticanus . These two do not agree between themselves, or with various early writings. Because these are the oldest New Testament texts in existence today, they are given more weight—but should they be? The Sinaiticus (331 – 4 th century) was found in a monastery on the “traditional” Mt Sinai and parts are stored in Petrograd, the British museum in London, the University library in Leipzig, and a few fragments are still at the monastery. It omits most of Matthew, much of Mark and John and Romans, but is considered complete by some, because all the books are listed. The Vaticanus (mid 300’s – 4 th century) is stored in the Vatican and omits Gen. 1-46, Psalms 105-137, most of Hebrews, parts of 1 and 2 Sam, 1 Kings, Nehemiah, and all of Timothy, Titus, Philemon, and Revelation. It also omits 1,491 clauses in the four Gospels. Old Syriac Translation in Syria in the east is from texts from the late 100’s, and it is missing the western texts of 2 Peter, 2 & 3 John, Jude and Revelation (see 196 A.D., Old Latin Translation). It should be noted that no church council ever recognized any of these as canons of Scripture, and the officially recognized canon was finally completed in 397 A.D. The Paschetta is a translation from Greek to Syriac for Christians in Mesopotamia. Today, we know of 86,000 citations and quotes from early church writings, letters, and lecture notes, and the 5,000 copies of the early Bible in Greek that agree with these early writings, letters, and lecture notes more than with the Sinaiticus and Vaticanus. The King James Version is translated from these 5,000 early Greek copies, while most of our modern versions relate more to the Sinaiticus and Vaticanus (considered the older canons (most books combined into a “Bible”), and therefore, better that the even earlier writings, letters, and lecture notes, which also exist). 95% of the New Testament can be verified by quotes from early church fathers in the 86,000 letters, lectures, and notes.

378 A.D.	The Bishop of Rome named "Pontifus Maximus," or Highest Priest – the first reference to high priest, or " pope ", in effect uniting the pagan worship practices of Ishtar, and the priests of Ishtar, into the Christian practices in Rome (see study on The Birth of Christ at Target Truth Ministries.com). Constantinople, to the east, however, is still the capitol and center of Roman Empire, and the Bishop of Constantinople is still more powerful than Rome.
381 A.D.	Council of Constantinople finalizes the Nicene Creed – the statement of the Trinity – and condemns heresies.
385 A.D.	Siricius was the first bishop to officially use title of " pope ."
395 A.D.	Christianity is declared the official religion of the Roman Empire by the emperor, but this is not recognized by the bishops.
397 A.D.	The Council of Carthage – the canon of the Old and New Testaments are complete – with no Apocrypha. Bishops in the east including Athanasius of Alexandria, also accept the canon, as Athanasius was actually the first to list these 27 books as Scripture.
400 A.D.	The Roman period (Palestinian) Talmud (see 538 B.C.), combines the Mishnah and Gemarah (completed in 500 A.D.—See 200 A.D.).
405 A.D.	The Latin Vulgate is complete – commissioned by Jerome, Bishop of Rome – used by churches for the next 1,000 years. The Old Testament is from Hebrew, and the New Testament is from Vaticanus (340 A.D.).
430 A.D.	Augustine, Bishop of Hippo, Algeria, states all teaching and doctrine are to be developed by the whole of Scripture. Most early doctrines were agreed to in the 4 th century. Prior to this various teachings and traditions circulated, as well as various texts, but eventually the bishops from all geographic areas agreed that certain sacraments were recognized by all, also certain doctrines, and that the agreed upon Scripture itself is the only repository of truth. Augustine never recognized Peter as pope, or any one bishop as authoritative, or Rome as central.
325-451 A.D.	Ecumenical Councils of Nicaea to Chalcedon – Bishops from all geographic areas, agree on major doctrines of the Trinity, and Jesus as fully God and fully human (one God), and salvation by grace of God. They agree on need to be unified in shared doctrine and interpretation of Scripture. The Alexandrius Text , from Alexandria, Egypt (stored in England), is from this period of the mid 400's. 250 Greek translations have Revelation. 24 are complete. Only the Alexandrius reads different from the other 23. The other 23 read the same as all the Latin Vulgate (405 A.D.).
440 A.D.	Pope Leo I declares his power and authority come from the line back to Peter and Rome. Most still see the bishop in Constantinople as the center of Christian authority.
432-461 A.D.	Patrick of Ireland – established Christianity in Ireland. The monks of Ireland copied most of the manuscripts of western civilization that we have today, including the Scriptures, as all the western libraries were destroyed after the fall of Rome (See 563 A.D.).
476 A.D.	The fall of the western Roman Empire – note that from about 400 A.D. through 800 A.D., the center of Christian authority actually rested in the east – Constantinople – where the true power of the Roman Emperor was seated. The Bishop of Rome, in 480 A.D., declared that Rome was the seat of Christian authority, because of its line to Peter, even though any bishop could claim to have a line of authority back to Jerusalem, as the first leaders were from Jerusalem and the first Bishop James, was the half-brother of Jesus. This split the eastern and western churches apart. For a few years, Rome maintained some power, but eventually Rome declined, and the power of the church rested in Constantinople. There was a period of western influence in the 6 th century, when Gregory was able to regain influence, but again the power soon went back to Constantinople.

520 A.D.	Emperor Justin I got both east and west to agree that they were equal and the same church, but it did not last.
529 A.D.	Emperor Justinian ordered the closing of the school of philosophy at Athens. The church began to oppress and persecute pagans.
563 A.D.	In Iona, Scotland, a secret society (Culdees), from Glastonbury Bible College, established by Joseph of Arimathea (Jesus), prepares evangelists for the “dark ages” (500 through 1400 A.D.). During the Dark Ages , the only translations allowed were Latin (Catholic Church), which no one outside the church could read – this lasted 1,000 years.
313-590 A.D.	A slow transition, from several area Bishops (Jerusalem, Constantinople, Alexandria, Rome, Syria, etc., each being equal), and from Jerusalem being an important center, begins. Over the years Rome and Constantinople becomes the important centers due to these being the seat of the emperor. In 590, Gregory of Rome is strong in the west for a short period, but Christianity still looks to Constantinople for ongoing authority, up until the 800’s. In the west, there is turmoil ...many men are claiming the seat of Peter – politically, an important seat.
700 – 1000 A.D.	MT- Masoretic text – Hebrew traditional text used today from Masoretes – “Edited” between 7 th and 10 th centuries from Hebrew sources.
720 A.D.	Emperor Leo III stripped the Pope in Rome from money and power in Italy, and gave authority to Constantinople.
787 A.D.	Council of Nicaea II – This is the last council recognized as binding by both east and west. Christ is recognized as both fully divine and fully human.
800 A.D.	In the west, Charlemagne (Charles the Great), becomes emperor, and once again, the Bishop of Rome (Leo), claims succession from Peter, and therefore, authority over all Christianity. After Charlemagne, the succession of popes led to multiple men again claiming the chair of Peter, and the church in Rome again lost its position of authority.
857 A.D.	East and west officially and formally split.
900 A.D.	In the 900’s, Otto the Great becomes Western Emperor, and stability again returns to Rome, but many of the popes of this period were involved in adultery, and the church lost its authority again. All bishops in all areas all claim the same heritage of scripture from the apostles and Jesus, and all claim authority equally, except that Rome and Constantinople continue to claim supreme authority, due to the seat of the emperor being located there, and its political influence.
1000 A.D.	Otto III – emperor of Rome – unites with Sylvester – Pope of Rome, and restores authority to the Roman Church, and the pagan areas are converted. But the east will not reconcile with Rome...a split which remains to this day. Even at this date, uncial script was still used (no breaks between words or sentences). At this date, breaks and punctuation added.
1054 A.D.	East and west split over Nicene Creed – original western version (“and I believe in the Holy Spirit, who proceeds from the Father and the Son”) – Eastern version (no reference to the words “ and the Son ”).
1228 A.D.	“Chapters” added to Old Testament to enable study.
1371-1384 A.D.	The entire Bible is translated from Latin to English – called the Wycliffe Bible (leads to KJV, 1611).
1378-1417 A.D.	Roman Church schism – 2 or 3 Popes at one time, each not recognizing the other.

1611 A.D.	The King James Version (aka the Authorized Version). 54 scholars took 6 years. The translators used the Bishops Bible, Tyndale's Bible, Latin translation (1384 A.D.), Septuagint (250 B.C.), Targums (100 A.D.), The Syriac Peshitta (340 A.D.), and the Textus Receptus (1516 A.D.). This version agrees with the majority of the 5,262 Greek manuscripts available today – 99 % error free – all errors are non-doctrinal. The Old Testament in the King James is from the Masoretic Hebrew Text , which was compiled by Masorete Hebrew scholars from the ancient manuscripts handed down by the Hebrew scribes. Many "modern" translations done today of the Old Testament use the German Kittel rationalistic translation.
1629, 1638, 1762, 1769	Re-printings of the King James to correct spelling, typos, and to standardize old gothic letters to present form.

1875 A.D.	Westcott & Holt used the oldest “canon” manuscripts (340 A.D.—primarily Alexandrus of 450 A.D.), to create a new Greek translation.
1881 A.D.	Greek Westcott & Holt used to make the Revised Version .
1901 A.D.	American Standard version came from the Westcott & Holt.
1946 A.D.	Revised Standard version came from the Westcott & Holt.
1950 A.D.	Jehovah’s Witness New World Translation comes from the Westcott & Holt, and many changes are made regarding the deity of Jesus – Jesus is “a” god, not fully God.
1960 A.D.	New American Standard version comes from the Westcott & Holt.
1985 A.D.	Tanakh – Complete Hebrew text of Old Testament into English from the Hebrew.
2018 A.D.	Eden to Evil first published to clear up understanding of Genesis 1-11...the two creation accounts, Eden and the 7 Day.

CONVENTIONAL SCIENTIFIC HYPHOTISIS

4.5 Billion years ago – Earth is forming as a molten ball of fire. Granite forms as the building base rock of all the continents. Seas form, possibly as a result of comets bringing water to the new planet from above.

3.5 Billion years ago – Life in water leaves deposits called Stromatolites

1.0 Billion years ago – Granite formations become one giant barren rocky land mass which science calls Rhodinia.

700 Million years ago – Earth cools and becomes an ice ball, and only bacteria and algae can live. Oxygen is forming.

650 Million years ago – Ice becomes one mile thick over the whole Earth. The surface temperature becomes minus 40 degrees.

530 Million years ago – Volcanism causes ice to breakup, oxygen increases, and an explosion of life occurs. All life forms emerge in this Cambrian era. This single land mass, with life, is now called Pangaea by science.

400 Million years ago – Oxygen increases, and Ozone forms, which protects life from the Sun's harmful ultraviolet light.

300 Million years ago – Carboniferous era – trees and jungles form today's coal deposits. Insects rule, and oxygen levels rise. Amphibians develop, followed later on by reptiles.

250 Million Years ago – 95% of life species go extinct due to the Siberian mantle eruption, vulcanization, and poisonous gases escaping.

180 Million years ago – Continents continue to split, and increasing carbon dioxide causes global warming, resulting in tropical forests, even at the poles.

150 Million years ago – Life evolved to dinosaurs as oxygen increases, and life from this era forms today's oil deposits. Earth's magnetic field keeps declining, and needs recharging.

65 Million years ago – 75% of all species go extinct, including the dinosaurs, as a result of a meteor impact. A meteor triggers volcanic activity and toxic dust. Core reversals recharge the magnetic field.

50 Million years ago – Mammals begin to flourish. The world's great mountain ranges form as continents, and Earth's plates, collide.

6 Million years ago – Grand Canyon is being up-lifted, and eroded, at the same time. Earth's magnetic field loses strength, and needs recharging frequently. Earth's magnetic field is recharged by core reversals.

2 Million years ago – Ice age begins, and man emerges from Africa / Near East. Ice age is caused by sea currents being disrupted by the formation of Panama. Ice in New York is as high as the Empire State Building. Earth's magnetic field is recharged every so often by core reversals.

TODAY – Lands are moving slowly, but could move massively. Note that God's Word tells us that the earth broke up dramatically over an 1,800 year period. The basic difference between the science based on evidence, and the science based on theory, is time and age of the earth and life. A short time frame points to a Creator God, which is not acceptable to the conventional community of theoretic science. (see the books in this series, Science & Origins, at Target Truth Ministries.com).

SCIENTIFIC EVIDENCE

Granite must form in a cold state. To this day, no one knows how the granite formed, and no one knows where the water came from. Stromatolites are lumps, or lobes, of rock, and these are still being deposited even today.

All science agrees that the land was originally one large mass.

Science is split on previous ice ages. Some say yes, some say no. Earth was supposedly still too hot for ice to form, according to many scientists.

Fossil evidence shows all life forms in this Cambrian sedimentary layer. Sedimentary layers are formed by water deposition, containing no radiometric dating material.

Science agrees that oxygen levels in the past were higher, but there are no fossils which show evolution. Fossils of same kind are found in more than one layer. These layers have no radiometric dating material to determine age.

All science agrees on the land splitting up. The argument is over the time scale, and whether global warming, or crustal displacement, caused the vegetation at the poles.

There is no evidence of Macro-evolution in the fossil record, only Micro-evolution within species. Even today, dinosaur bones are not yet fossilized, and reveal testable DNA.

These meteor impacts, along with the earth's crust breaking up, could explain why the earth's magnetic field keeps recharging. The iridium layer exists all over the earth. Science agrees mountain ranges are the result of continental movement.

Some scientists theorize the Grand Canyon is the result of great flooding. Some scientists believe land moves slowly (millions of years). Others theorize that the earth's crust has moved massively due to crustal displacement, or Mars fly-bys, thus recharging the Earth's magnetic field. There is no evidence for core reversals.

DATE	EVENTS
Creation – Eden (see pages 2-3)	Creation – Genesis 1:1—this verse written in the “perfect tense” meaning it is a completed action. Following it are descriptions. Eden – Genesis Chapter 2:4 to 2:25 (the Creation, which is summarized by the Genesis 1:1 introduction / completed action). Adam is created before plants. God’s name is Yahweh. No sea, sun, moon, or stars listed--God is light (Rev. 21:23, 22:5). Hebrew word for creation is “bara” (original creation). Rev. 12:1-2 – The host of heaven are pictured as the woman (BRIDE) betrothed to God (12 stars = complete number).
Fall (see pages 2-3)	Gen. 3:1 – 3:24 – Original sin – Satan introduced sin to Eden (not Adam). Rev. 12:3-4 – One-third of the host of heaven (stars) fall. Gen. 1:2 – Earth in darkness, became formless and void – “tohu wabohu.” The earth was not created formless (Isa. 45:18 – “tohu wabohu”—not created formless). God brooded (moved) – Genesis 1:2. Job 38:1-18 – The host of heaven (stars / angels / sons of God) witness the re-creation of the earth after the fall. Eph. 1:4-5, 11 - God knew us before the foundation of this earth age we inhabit now. John 10:16 – we are the “other sheep” – the “fold” is heaven / Eden
Re-creation – 7 Day (see pages 2-4) 3850 B.C. 1,656 years to flood (Gen. 5)	7 Day creation (Gen. 1:3-2:3) Re-creation. The 7 days groaned – Romans 8:22. Man made after plants. God’s name is Elohim. The sea, sun, moon, and stars are made (Hebrew word for re-creation is “asah”). (See the book: “Eden to Evil” – The Two Creations at Target Truth Ministries.com). Science is finding ancient structures under 200 to 400 feet of water, meaning the water level was much lower in the ancient past (at 1,000 feet below sea level, one can walk around the globe). Perhaps the water was in a water canopy, surrounding the earth. The sea level was low, theoretically, because the water was not in the sea, but in a protective canopy, or shell, keeping the harmful radiation off the surface of the planet (Gen. 2:6), and also the water was stored under the crust of the earth (much of it still is, to this day). Science knows that ultraviolet light destroys life, and because people lived longer in the past, there needed to be a barrier to the sun’s radiation, such as a water canopy surrounding the earth (see other books in this series, “Science, Origins, & Ancient Civilizations,” Target Truth Ministries.com). There was evil continually, and God brought on the flood. (See “Giants” in book: “Eden to Evil”—Gen. 6, and also Study “Giants” at Target Truth Ministries.com). Science knows that after such a catastrophic event, ice caps would form very quickly at the polar regions. Adam to Seth – 130 years / Seth to Enosh – 105 years / Enosh to Kenan – 90 years / Kenan to Mahalael – 70 years / Mahalael to Jared – 65 years / Jared to Enoch – 162 years / Enoch to Methuselah – 65 years / Methuselah to Lamech – 187 years / Lamech to Noah – 182 years...600 years to the flood = 1,656 years

2190 B.C.	Noah landed in a fertile area, protected from the ice age, and the families spread out. (Gen 10 – see page 3-5) Shem: Goes east of the Tigris (Gen. 11:2), down to Ur area, called the “Plain of Shinar,” which ran between the two rivers, about 400 miles, in an area also called Mesopotamia. As time progresses, the tribes of Shem expand in the Fertile Crescent area of Israel, Jordan, Lebanon, Syria, Turkey, and Iraq, called the “Cradle of Civilization,” and also the “Fertile Crescent.” Japheth: Goes north, and west, and east (Europe, Russia, and Asia). These families find hostile environments to settle in, due to the cold climates, and they do not develop as quickly as those south. Ham: Goes south to Canaan, Egypt, Saudi Arabia, and east to Iran and Asia. The seas recede after the flood and the ice grows. Both the empires of Shem and Ham develop at the same time and create the areas known as Samaria and Egypt. (NOTE: Both in history seem to emerge “developed”...law, education, writing, math, etc.). The sea rises up, as the ice melts, and then goes down, as the ice grows, and so on, as the climate stabilizes (a cyclical series of events). Samaria, in the Fertile Crescent, began with one-God worship. A god of heaven, called An, meaning “high.” But by the time of Abraham, they were using 5,000 gods. Sumerians invented the wheel, the plow with seeder, irrigation and flood control, cuneiform writing, math with base 10, divided the circle into 360 degrees, divided the year into 12 – 30 day cycles, built Ziggurats, and were a loosely organized group of city states.
2150 B.C.	Pyramids and Sphinx (perhaps these pre-date the flood of Noah – see book: “Science, Origins, & Ancient Civilizations” at Target Truth Ministries.com).
2150 B.C.	Tower of Babel. Nimrod (Gen. 10:8-10), established himself as a god on earth, and after his death, was called Baal (the sun god). Nimrod’s wife, Semiramis, became the moon god with rebirth powers (seen as moon cycles). Certain religious practices, which began here in Babylon, spread to all nations, and are with us even today in the Christian church (see Birth of Christ study, or “God’s Plan/Satan’s Plan,” “Science, Origins, & Ancient Civilizations” at Target Truth Ministries.com). Even though the Babylonian records are incomplete, the Greek myths derived from these Babylonian roots, and the Greeks have preserved a record for us of how these mother child cults relate to God’s creation, the fall, and the serpent. In the ancient part of the world, man embraced the serpent, which was seen as the provider of knowledge (Gen. 3:4-5 – see Greece reference in the Queen of Heaven study, or books: “God’s Plan/Satan’s Plan,” “Science, Origins & Ancient Civilizations,” “Eden to Evil,” at Target Truth Ministries.com). One tribe of Shem, known as the Akkadians, overpower the other tribes of Shem in the Sumerian lands, take over the city states and unite them, and also push Ham out of the Canaan area down into Egypt. The Semitic language replaced Sumerian. This all fell apart under Akkad’s sons.

DATE	EVENTS
2150 B.C.	Sargon established worship of the moon god – SIN , and named Mt. Sinai in northern Saudi Arabia as sacred to the Moon God (SIN). Many ancient myths, which seemed to parallel the story of Christ (virgin birth, resurrection, etc.), were elevated to historical status in the late 1800's and early 1900's. Recent scholarship has, however, shown that each of these, fall far short of being historic parallels. Lee Strobel, in his book, "The Case for the Real Jesus," has provided evidence showing these myths have been either later embellished to relate to Christ, or were actually created after the time of Christ. Historically, these myths in no way even closely relate to the life of Christ. We must remember the original story of the virgin and the resurrection, were given in the Zodiac by God, and it has been perverted into these other myths.
2100 B.C.	Ur became the next center, under leadership of Ur-Nammu and the most ancient known law codes were set up. They had hot and cold running water, flush toilets, and sewage systems.
2030 B.C. Flood to Abraham 161 years (Gen. 11)	Abraham born, and is later called by God to leave Ur (Gen. 12:1-9), go to Haran, and on to Canaan (Palestine), and then, Abraham continues on to Egypt, and eventually returns to Canaan. Abram worshiped Melchizedek (King of Jerusalem) Gen. 14. Abraham's father was an idol maker—the main god of Ur is the Moon god.
Joseph in Egypt 1660 B.C.	Abraham has a son, Isaac at age 100 (Gen. 21:5). Isaac's son Jacob is born to Isaac at age 60 (Gen. 25:26). Jacob's name is changed to Israel (Gen.35), and he has 12 sons, one of which is Joseph, who is sold into slavery to Egypt by his brothers (Gen.37). Joseph arrives in Egypt around 1660 B.C. , and becomes 2 nd in command to the Egyptian leader at age 30 (Gen.41). Possibly Hyksos are in control of Egypt. Soon, the rest of the family comes to Egypt and they fall under control of Egypt, until around 1450 B.C. when Moses around age 80 delivers Israel back to Canaan. (Gen. 12:1-3, 7, 13:14-17, 15:1-21, 17:2-14, 22:15-18; Heb. 6:13-20)
1550-1530 B.C.	Babylon - Ammorites, or the Amurru under Hammurabi take control and center their authority in Babylon (according to astronomical records from Babylon, this date is around 1550 B.C.)—Babylonian King Hammurabi. Egypt - Moses birth around 1530 (Ex. 1:7-8; Acts 7:17-20). Egyptian pharaoh thought to be Khaneferre (grandson of Neferhotep) but Hyksos are seen by some as being "another kind" who actually control Egypt at this time-Septuagint reads "Goshen of Arabia"
1450 B.C.	Moses at 80 (Ex. 7:7), brings the Israelites out of Egypt, to Canaan (Palestine).
1440 B.C.	Hittites from Turkey and Syria captured Babylon , and controlled the Fertile Crescent. Egyptian Pharaoh Ahmosis (Ahmose I) defeats Hyksos in Egypt who suffer due to plagues- [Stele of Ahmosis (Ahmose) Cairo Museum].
1300 B.C.	Philistines (not Palestinians), arrive in the Canaan area. They came from Greece or Cyprus (called the sea peoples by Egypt), and they came via Egypt around 1300 B.C.
1100 B.C.	Assyrians (northeast of Babylon), took over Babylon, and are credited with forming the first great world library at Nineveh.
1050 B.C.	David , in Canaan (Palestine) fights Goliath, a Philistine. Babylon captured the Philistine people and deported some to Babylon, and the Philistine people disappeared as a distinct people.

DATE	EVENTS
1020 B.C.-721 B.C.	Israel is the world's greatest nation under David and Solomon. In 950 B.C. Solomon's Temple built (1 Kings 6:1-8:66). The united kingdom of Israel (1020 B.C.–922 B.C.) divides after the death of Solomon.
722 B.C.	Assyria captures the north – Israel, with its capital Samaria, and controls most of the Fertile Crescent (2 Kings 17:1-41). Assyrian Empire lasted from 754 B.C. to 612 B.C.
626 B.C.	Babylon Empire , formed by the union of the Chaldeans from Arabia and the Medes and Scythians, take control over the Fertile Crescent under Nebuchadnezzar. The great Hanging Gardens of Babylon became a wonder of the world.
622 B.C.	King Josiah reforms (2 Kings 22-23).
605 B.C.	Ez. 4:5-7 – Israel conquered by Babylon.
600 B.C.	Greece establishes Byzantium in Turkey.
587 B.C.	Judea, with its capital Jerusalem in the south, is captured and destroyed by Babylon under Nebuchadnezzar.
586 B.C.	Judah 922– 586 Temple destroyed 9 th /10 th of AV – see study 9th/10th of AV at Target Truth Ministries.com
539 B.C.	Medes and Persians from the east under Cyrus the Great from the Persian Empire took over Babylon. They are credited with creating the first postal service in 500 B.C. under Darius I. The Greek historian Herodotus in 500 B.C. wrote “Neither snow nor rain nor heat nor gloom of night stop these couriers from the swift completion of their appointed rounds.” Xerxes – called Ahasuerus in the Bible – was the husband of Queen Esther and his successor, Artaxerxes I, had a cup bearer named Nehemiah. They adopted the religion of Zoroastrianism. Cyrus allows the tribes to return to Jerusalem and Canaan (Palestine). (Ezra 1:1-4; 2 Chron. 36:20-23). And Jerusalem rebuilt 445 – 396 B.C. Persian Empire lasted from 550 B.C. to 330 B.C.
515 B.C.	Second temple complete (Ezra 3:1-6:22)
445 B.C.	Decree of Artaxerxes (Neh. 2:1-8) to allow Israel to rebuild Jerusalem (see prophecy of Dan. 9:25-26 and 2068 page 24).
330 B.C.	Greece takes Babylon under Alexander the Great and establishes Babylon as the capitol of the Greek empire. Herodotus, the Greek Historian, called Israel, the land of Palaistine , whose population was circumcised (Jewish). Israel means “wrestled with the Lord”, and the Greek word “ palaistes ” means “wrestler.” Aristotle referred to the Palestine lands as the land of Israel. He also said the land of the Philistines (the sea peoples who settled south of Israel for about 250 years), was separated from the Dead Sea, by the hills and wilderness of Judea. In other words, the Philistines (not Palestinians) lived south of Israel Linguists today argue that actually Palestine is the Greek equivalent of Israel (the Greek word epalaien , which means “he wrestled”, and palaistes meaning “wrestler” are the equivalent to Palestine in the Greek language). The ancient Greeks loved word play, and loved wrestling. There is no language known as Palestinian, and there was no known Palestinian government, army, or capitol city--just Israel who wrestled with God.
167 B.C.	Roots of Hanukkah – Daniel 8 (see Message on Jesus fulfilling Hanukkah at Target Truth Ministries.com).

DATE	EVENTS
133 B.C.	Rome took over control of the Fertile Crescent from the Greek Empire and used the name Palaestina for the whole land of Israel, even while Israel was still in the land. The Jewish writer Philo in the 1 st century used the name Palestine. Also, Josephus, the 1 st century historian, used the name Palestine. Rome crushed the Jewish people in the 1 st century and left the land to the Arab Edomite tribes (from Esau), which were not organized in any structure. Maccabean kings, from Israel, took control of Judah from 142 to 63 B.C. – Rome/Pompeii makes Judea part of the Empire (see 132-135 A.D.)
0	CHRIST (probably 2 B.C. – see study on Date of Christ's Birth , or books: " Science, Origins & Ancient Civilization ," or " God's Plan/Satan's Plan " at Target Truth Ministries.com)
32 A.D.	April 6 – Passover – Feast # 1 – Jesus arrives on Passover as the Lamb to be sacrificed – Dan. 9:25-25; Neh. 2:1-8 – see 2068 page 24.
70 A.D.	The Roman Empire destroys Jerusalem and the Temple . 9 th – 10 th of AV
132-135 A.D.	Judea was officially named Palestina by Roman Hadrian, after the Bar Kokhba Jewish revolt.
321 A.D.	Roman Emperor Constantine made Christianity the official religion of the empire, resulting in the real official beginning of discrimination and persecution of the Jewish people.
395 A.D.	Rome divides, and in the east, Byzantium becomes the capitol of the eastern Roman Empire, including Babylon, and the Fertile Crescent. During both the Roman and Byzantium periods, after the time of Christ, the Arab population was either Christian or tribes who worshiped multiple pagan gods. The area called Palaestina was abandoned and left unattended.
650 A.D.	Arab tribes, united by Mohammad under Islam, take over and capture Babylon and Jerusalem, and force local Arab tribal populations to convert to Islam. Many Arabs tribes continue to worship Christ. Even in 1948, Bethlehem still Christian (110,000). Today only 10,000.
1099 A.D.	The first crusades began with Peter the Hermit, and Jerusalem was captured from the Islamic Arab tribes.
1187 A.D.	Islamic Arab tribes under Saladin , the Sultan of Egypt, captured Jerusalem, and even though there were 4 more crusades, the Islamic Arab nations maintained control.
1453 A.D.	Ottoman Turks conquered the Islamic Arab powers from 1300 to 1500 A.D. and ruled the Fertile Crescent until World War I, in 1918. They lost the war, having been aligned with Germany and Austria-Hungary.
1867 A.D.	Mark Twain went to Holy Land and wrote that it was desolate – never saw an Arab – hardly a tree or shrub
1918 A.D.	Britain took control over the Palestine territory (Trans-Jordan and Iraq), and France took control over lands today (called Lebanon and Syria). Approximately 5,000 Arabs lived in the area of what is now Israel. All through history, there have always been more Jews than Arab peoples in Israel.
1922 A.D.	Turkey became a republic, and by 1946, each area became independent, except the British-controlled Palestine territory, where the Jewish people had been settling in large numbers for a hundred years, by purchasing the land from the Trans-Jordan tribes.

1948 A.D.	Israel became an independent country on May 14, 1948 (The land was set aside for them by the British after WWII), and they were attacked the very next day by Egypt, Iraq, Jordan, Lebanon, and Syria. Israel won (per Chuck Missler, this fulfilled the prophecy of Ezek. 4:1-8, and Lev. 26, of 2,520 years from the first siege of Jerusalem to May 14 th , 1948 exactly). See Study on Great Prophecies at Target Truth Ministries.com. The refugees are those Arab peoples the attacking nations refused to allow to settle in their national homelands. They live in refugee camps still.
1967 A.D.	Islamic Arab nations continue to attack Israel and Arabs lose joint control over Jerusalem (per Chuck Missler, this fulfilled the prophecy of Ezek. 4:1-8, and Lev. 26, of 2,520 years from the third siege of Jerusalem to June 7 th , 1967) – see study Great Prophecies Study. Israel gave Jordan control of Holy Mountain as a gesture of peace.
1968-2015 A.D.	The people who call themselves Palestinian Muslims claim the land historically belongs to them, because they lived there. Jewish people also claim the land because they lived there, had a government, and a military, and in the early 1900's, actually purchased much of the land from the tribes. The Palestinian tribes aligned with Germany in both WWI and WWII, and lost both wars. Britain and France maintained control all those years and gave Israel the land. The “so-called Palestinians” lost the war and lost the land. There are still over one million Christian Arabs living in the territory as well (see Message “End-Time prophecy about to be fulfilled” at Target Truth Ministries.com).
1988 A.D.	Palestinian Liberation Organization, with Yassar Arafat as its president, declared themselves as the government of Palestine in exile entitled to the land. The United Nations recognized this effort, and as a pathway to peace as part of a two-state solution.
2012 A.D.	United Nations recognized the state of Palestine...gave them the status as a “non-member” and the title of “State of Palestine”. They now have embassies in over 200 countries.
2016 A.D.	America allows world nations to begin to force Israel to give up its’ lands for peace--recognizing Palestine as entitled to certain lands, leading to the fulfillment of the prophecies of Dan. 9:27-28 and Ezek. 38-39, where Israel will eventually be given peace with assurances, only to find itself at war. (see Message “End-Time prophecy about to be fulfilled” at Target Truth Ministries.com).
2018 A.D.	Jerusalem recognized as the capital of Israel.

The world seems to be going in the wrong direction...moving away from the worship of Jesus...even here in America. Churches are getting smaller, and closing. In many cases, ministries are downsizing. Abortion on the other hand, is expanding—over 4,000 every day, which is equal to what Hitler did to the Jewish people over 4 years—4,000 every day resulting in 6 million exterminated. Today, America leads the world in exterminations - now reaching 60 million - 10 times the number exterminated by Hitler !

What, if anything, is going to happen in 2068? Let's look into this by searching God's Word...and, let's be careful!!! Let's all remember that we are all in our own personal "End of Days." Even if the world goes on for another 1,000 years, we will either be with the Lord...or on our way to hell for those who deny Jesus.

Jesus tells us to "Listen to Moses and the Prophets" (Luke 16:31). But, because we are imperfect humans, as we read Moses and the prophets (their stories and predictions, and puzzles, in the Bible), we need to be prepared for what we may discover, but we should not go so far as to assume we actually, positively know for sure that something is going to happen on a certain date. This is because until the prophecy actually unfolds right in front of our eyes, it is still just a prophecy and subject to interpretation. There are almost 4,000 verses directly, or indirectly, concerned with prophecy in Scripture—300 concerning Jesus alone (which were all fulfilled). I don't claim to be a prophet. I do claim to read the Bible and pay attention to what God writes.

John 3:5-7 When it comes to our death in this life, and then, where we will spend our eternal life, and whether we will be saved by developing a personal relationship with God...be "born again", or not... it is God's intention not to lose a single person who is destined to be saved (John 6:39, 10:28-30).

Romans 3:10-12, 23 God's purpose is to get our attention...and if it takes time in jail and prison—a time out—then that is what may be used. In other words, in God's view, nothing is more important than us being as close to God as possible. If chains are needed to get our attention, then chains may be used. And, if it only takes a few strings pulling on us to draw us closer to God, then that is what God will use. Bottom line...none of us seeks after God on our own, which means that God will use some kind of attention getting device to draw us to Him and His ways. The book Eden to Evil explains why none of us seeks after God on our own.

We need to use God's Word—the Bible. We learn in Romans 10:13-14, 17, that we are brought to salvation by hearing the Word...the Bible...which leads us to Jesus. Today, in America, church based schools and home schools, which used to dominate education prior to WW 1, have been mostly replaced with government schools. 106 of the first 108 Universities in America were Christian Universities. But today, college has mostly gone agnostic—no Bibles. In our world today, God's Word has been hidden from many. The Bible and prayer have been banned in school since the 1950's by our government. And, therefore, many families grow up with no foundation at all in Jesus and the Bible. Furthermore, even if a person is aware of what the Bible says, they may choose to dismiss it because today we rely upon government to care for our needs...many feel they no longer need Jesus. In fact, government, today, dismisses the Bible. Our nation is walking away from God. God has been expelled from school.

The Bible is dismissed as myth... not scientific (even though all science opposed to God and the Bible, like the “Big Bang,” billions of years and “evolution”, is ONLY “theory” -- see the book “Science, Origins, & Ancient Civilizations”—Target Truth Ministries.com.)

Still...God’s Word (the Bible), has proven to be undeniably correct over thousands of years. New discoveries are made each year that support the Bible. There are many prophecies which have come true, which is hard evidence that we should trust the Bible...not dismiss it.

And...there is a prophecy for our time...for our children’s time ! But first, let’s look at a couple of prophecies from the past, and see how God gives us puzzles to explore...and how we might look at our time today, now that Jesus has come (as prophesized), and sacrificed Himself to save all of us who will trust in Him and be “born again” (John 3:1-7), as prophesized. Please note that these prophecies have been verified by historians.

Daniel 9:25-26 - For us a Decade means 10 years. For the Jewish people a Week in prophecy can be interpreted as 7 years. This is a prophecy of the restoral of Jerusalem (which had been destroyed), and the arrival of the Messiah--the Savior. Daniel 9:25 gives this prophecy of the 62 weeks and the 7 weeks that will need to pass before these things happen. In 1894, Sir Robert Anderson determined that this prophecy had been fulfilled exactly to the very day! Neh. 2:1-8 refers to the decree of Artaxerxes (March 14th, 445 B.C.), which allowed Israel to rebuild the city of Jerusalem. From that decree we must go forward 69 (62 + 7), weeks of years, or 483 years. Remember what Jesus said in Luke 16:31--“Listen to Moses and the prophets.”

On April 6th, 32 A.D., Jesus was recognized as the Messiah by the people on the first day of Passover as He rode into Jerusalem on a Donkey exactly 69 weeks of years later--after the decree to rebuild the city! 173,880 days later, exactly! Jesus rode in on a donkey (the way kings and high priests would ride in that day). In Luke 19:41-44, Jesus remarked ...”You did not recognize the time of your visitation” -- meaning that most of the nation of Israel and its leaders did not recognize the fulfillment of this prophecy.

Another prophecy is in Ezekiel 4:5-7 – Dr. Chuck Missler in 1998 determined how this prophecy was fulfilled. Because of Israel’s sin, this was the prophecy of Israel’s siege, and eventual restoral as a nation again. The prophecy calls for 390 days (years), and 40 days (years) of suffering without the Jewish people having a land of their own...a nation of Israel. 430 years total. Beginning in 605 B.C., Israel was conquered by Babylon and was under their control for 70 years until the Romans conquered Babylon. Israel during this time failed to submit to God. Moses wrote what God said in the Torah in Lev. 26:16-18, that if Israel failed to submit to God, that their punishment would now be 7 times as much. There remained 360 years of punishment, and this period was now multiplied times 7. This means that Israel now faced 2,520 more years of being in exile and without a country of their own. 907,200 days of suffering under another power. Remember what Jesus said in Luke 16:31--“Listen to Moses and the prophets.”

The Persian Cylinder of Cyrus, which is held in the London Museum, records the sieges of Israel and Jerusalem. And from the 1st siege of Israel (2 Kings 24:1ff), to the establishment of Israel as a nation again on May 14, 1948, this exactly fulfilled the 70 years, plus the 907,200 days--exactly to the very day! This prophecy, like Daniel’s, was also exactly fulfilled to the very day!

Jesus is prophesized to return to bring an end to this earth age and Satan’s domain. But, Satan’s plan is to convince us to ignore God, and ignore the Bible’s prophecies. Satan’s plan seems to be working in America.

Prophecy of Jesus’ Return:

In Luke 21:29-32, Jesus, Himself, gives us a prophecy of the generation which will, in the future, see His return. This generation (which sees these trees coming out of dormancy), will see the return of Christ. The fig tree coming out of dormancy is Israel after WWII. The fig tree is a common Jewish reference to Israel (Joel 1:6-7; Hosea 9:10). The other trees (other nations), coming out of dormancy also were established at the same time (Jordan, Syria, Lebanon, Iraq, Libya, Iran, Greece, Saudi Arabia, Hungary, Bulgaria, Yugoslavia, and many others). These were all part of the Byzantium and Ottoman empires from the time of the Roman Empire until WWI, and all became countries again at the time of Israel. So... Jesus declares that the generation that sees this happen will see His return.

Are we that generation? From the very beginning, God has declared that He will strive with man for only 120 years (Genesis 6:3; Matt. 24:34-37), that the coming will be like the days of Noah, where God declared 120 years as the maximum limit of time which God would have patience with man, meaning that God will give the world of mankind up to 120 years to show our love for Him. Some interpret this to be 120 years of age for a human being's life. We know that there are some people who have lived beyond 120 years...even today. Therefore, this period of God striving with mankind for only 120 years probably refers to the period of His patience with the last generation...once everything is in place...Israel, Jerusalem, and God's sacrifice (Jesus), for us.

Note that Jesus also says these days could be shortened (Matt. 24:21-22), which means no one knows the year of Jesus' return, but we are to keep watch!

This means that once Jesus the Savior has come (and He has), ...and, once Israel is established as a nation again (and it has been), ...then God's next move is to bring an end to this age of flesh sometime within this generation that sees Israel established (Matt. 24:32-34). Once Israel is established as a nation again...then the clock is set for the last 120 year period before the end (Gen. 6:3; Matt. 24:37). Israel was not a nation for 2,590 years! When did Israel become a nation again? 1948! 120 years after 1948 is...2068.

Some historians view the 120 years being a reference to 120 Jubilee cycles (50 year cycles) since creation that God will be patient with mankind. Coincidentally, the 120th Jubilee also occurs just before, or during, this period of 2068. We will discuss both in this study. Even so, the question is...will God wait until 2068 (Matt. 24:22) ?

Other passages of God's Word also point us to this period of time we are now living in :

After 2 days (2,000 years since Jesus), then the 3rd day – the next 1,000 years...the Millennium.

0 Ex. 19:9-17 – 2 days to prepare (2,000 years), and the 3rd day meet the Lord (next 1,000 years)._____

Moses, chosen by God to be the deliverer of Israel from Egypt, was sent to tell pharaoh to let God's people worship God, and to let them go, or death would result for Egypt (Ex. 7:1-5).

Before Jesus, this world was in bondage waiting for the Savior to set us free. Jesus fulfilled the example set by Moses, and has set us free!

0 In the Exodus story, the Egyptian army came out against Israel, but was defeated by God (Ex. 14:9-14).

Satan is continually attacking the saints, and will ultimately be defeated by God (Christ—Rev. 19:19-21).

0 Israel, now out of Egypt (yet – still in the wilderness), were reluctant to go into the Promised Land, to trust in God, and therefore, God waited until a new generation, willing to trust, was born. Therefore, Israel wandered in the wilderness until this new generation would go into the Promised Land (Deut. 1:29-40). God was with Israel in the wilderness, in the tabernacle each day, but they had to endure the tribulation of the wilderness.

Many today, do not trust in God, even after knowledge of the resurrection, and the promise of God's kingdom to come. Also, millions have not heard the Gospel message of salvation of Jesus. On the last day, when Jesus returns, those not resurrected and raptured (those who do not yet really know of Jesus), are not destroyed by God (because they never denied God), and these will go into the millennium (the 1,000 year kingdom – our promised land to come). Note that the millennium is not the "New Heaven and Earth," which is yet still far in the future (at the end of the 1,000 year millennium). Jesus is with us every day, just as God was with Israel in the wilderness. The conclusion of the millennium is to conquer sin, and conquer Satan, once and for all before all the saved join Jesus in the New Heaven and Earth (Rev. 20:4-6, 11-15; Isa. 24:1-6; Matt. 19:28-30).

0 Most of Israel, while in the wilderness, turned from God, and were warned and judged (Josh. 23:9-13).

In God's Word, we are told that many still follow Satan at the end of the millennium, and they will not inherit eternal life in the New Heaven and Earth, but will spend eternity in hell, isolated, alone, separated, forever (Rev. 20:7-9).

So, let's return to the subject of the day Jesus returns. The Day of the Lord (the last day), the day Jesus returns (written about in Acts 1; Revelation 1, and 19), is seen throughout this story of the Exodus, which occurred 3,500 years ago. Here in the story of the Exodus, (Ex. 19), we find many links to the last day, "the Day of the Lord," and Jesus coming to us – foretold by Moses being sent to free Israel.

0 Exodus 19:3-4 – "eagle's wings" – God provides protection for His chosen. The eagle is the natural enemy of the serpent.

In Revelation 12:13-14, we read that Israel will again be protected in the end-times. Note the reference to "eagle's wings."

0 Exodus 19:5 – "a treasure" – Israel is His chosen, His treasure. The KJV reads "peculiar."

In Matthew 13:44, we read that Jesus paid the price 2,000 years ago. And, He is coming back soon to claim His treasure (Rev. 19). In 1 Peter 2:9, we are told to be a "peculiar" people.

0 Exodus 19:10 & 14 – "wash their clothes" – Israel was to wash their clothes. In other words, get ready to meet God. It is their action, their responsibility, to wash, to prepare to meet God.

In the end-times, in Revelation 19:7-8, we read that the bride (the church), has made herself ready. The fine clothes are the acts of the saints (the believers). We are called to salvation by God. God does the leading. But, we are to prepare to meet Jesus. God's message is to be about His work, to make ourselves ready, to prepare to meet Jesus.

0 Exodus 19:9, 16 – "cloud" – God will be in the cloud.

We read in Acts 1:6-11; Revelation 1:7, 14:14-20; and Matthew 24:30-31, that in the end-times Jesus will return in the clouds, that every eye will see Him, that this is a day of harvest, the harvest of souls. Clouds are symbolic of the host of heaven accompanying Jesus/God.

0 Exodus 19:12-13 & 16 & 19 – "trumpet" – The trumpet is actually a shofar (or a ram's horn), and for Israel, it announces the time to assemble to meet God.

We read in 1 Corinthians 15:51-52; 1 Thessalonians 4:16; Matthew 24:30-31; and Rev. 16:1-21, that in the end-times, the resurrection will be announced by the trumpet, and the harvest will begin—the harvest of souls (Feast # 5).

0 Exodus 19:11 & 15-16 – "the third day" – in the third day, God came. This "meeting of God" occurs during the third day. There are two days to prepare (verse 10). This is not like Christ's resurrection, which occurred "after" three days and three nights in the tomb (see Message on "The Fourth Day" @ Target Truth Ministries.com). This "meeting of God," takes place "during" the third day, and this day of God's appearing to Israel in the Exodus on Mt. Sinai was a day of "shock and awe" when He appeared.

In the end-times, the "Day of the Lord" (judgment day, the end of this earth age), is also described by God as "shock and awe" (Rev. 19), and occurs as the beginning of the 3rd day. God uses the two days, and the third day, as many Hebrew prophets write of "days" (2 Peter 3:8 – a day is as a thousand years). This could then mean that the two days for Israel to prepare to meet God, are equivalent to the 2,000 years we (the Christian Church), have been preparing for the return of Jesus. And, the morning of the third day (the beginning of the next 1,000 years—the millennium), will be "the Day of the Lord," the judgment and the resurrection (which means it could be any time now, as we are now entering the third day—the third millennium since Jesus).

The Hebrew prophets also wrote in Hosea 6:1-3, that after two days, in the third day, He will raise us up.

In Luke 3:31-33, Jesus told the Pharisees to tell King Herod that for two days He must perform miracles, and prepare, and that on the third day He would reach His goal (Jerusalem—death, and the Resurrection).

In John 2:1-6 [right after John 1:51, where Jesus states we will see the Son of Man (Jesus)], we read that on the third day was the marriage. This is one of those curious references – “on the third day,” because scholars don’t seem to know exactly what the author was referring to—third day from what? Some believe the third day is a reference to Tuesday—the third day of the week after the Saturday Sabbath, and that is why Tuesday is the traditional desired day for Jewish people to have a wedding. We know that the “marriage,” of course, is the reference to the Last Day, and the Resurrection / Rapture (Rev. 19:6-9), where the groom (Jesus) joins with His bride (the believers). So, the “third” day probably refers to the beginning of the millennium after 2,000 years since Jesus.

Hosea 6:1-3 – after 2 days, raise us up on the 3rd day (the millennium).

Luke 13:31-33 – 2 days of miracles and forgiveness, and 3rd day attain the goal.

John 2:1-6 – on the 3rd day a wedding, and water transformed into wine, and the “bride” in paradise.

After 6 days (6,000 years since creation), then the 7th day of rest (the millennium).

Several places in Scripture point to the numbers 6, and 7, as foretelling of the end of this age, and the beginning of the Millennium. Ezek. 46:1-6 states that God’s house (Paradise), is to be shut for 6 days, and open on the 7th. Also, in Jer. 34:12-14, those who owe a debt (enslaved and in bondage due to debt), must serve 6 years, and then be set free in the 7th year. Even 6,000 years, and the start of the 7th millennium, are in Scripture. Every 50 years Israel was to celebrate a “Jubilee” where all debts were forgiven. The 120th Jubilee celebrates 6,000 years since creation. Israel’s Jubilee is celebrated upon the end of the 5th Feast (the beginning of the 6th Feast) of each 50th year. The 120th Jubilee was celebrated, according to some historians, as early as 1967 on our western calendars, and according to other historians it will occur as late as 2067, although most place it at 2017. Israel quit celebrating the Jubilee and keeping records about 300 years before Jesus due to their occupation and displacement by other nations. Therefore, Israel cannot exactly pinpoint the exact year, but...scholars and historians agree that the 120th Jubilee (end of 6,000 years since creation), either has occurred already or will occur soon...and most point to 2017. See 2017 Documentary @ Target Truth Ministries.com, under tab “2068 Video Series.”

We today, are at the start of the 3rd day / the 7th millennium (Rev. 20). The millennium will begin soon at the beginning of the 120th Jubilee with Feast 6 (the end of Feast 5 that year). As I wrote of this in 2018, if 2017 was the 120th Jubilee at Feast 6, then the millennium could possibly have begun with the Sep. / Oct. period of 2018 with Feast 5 – The Final Harvest Feast. But, this is unlikely, because the temple and 2 witnesses which are to be defiled were not in place as described with Feast 5 (Matt. 24:15-16; Mark 13:14; Rev. 11:1-3). We will probably see the temple established and 2 witnesses being defiled... before the next Jubilee occurs, which could be Sept. / Oct. of 2067 and Feast 6 - the time will be shortened (Matt. 24:22). If not, prophesy only leaves Feast 5, of 2068.

Whatever year God chooses...the end should happen at Feast # 5 – which Israel celebrates every single year.

Israel celebrates the 7 Feasts, given by God to them, every single year. The key to being prepared is to understand that Jesus (God in the flesh), is fulfilling each of these Feasts of Israel. See Feasts of Israel Study at Target Truth Ministries.com.

John 1:29, 36 Jesus fulfilled the Passover Feasts when He entered Jerusalem on Passover (Feast # 1), selected to be sacrificed at the same exact time as the lambs were being selected—4 days before the sacrifice (Ex. 12:3-8). Jesus is referred to as the “Lamb of God.” Jesus entered Jerusalem on the first day of the Passover - 4 days (selected), before His death—then sacrificed at the same time as the lambs for Passover.

John 6:35 The next Feast—Unleavened Bread—Feast # 2, remembers how Israel had to wrap the bread in linen for the journey out of Egypt with Moses to a promised new life, and it was on this feast when Jesus’ body was wrapped in linen and placed in the tomb at the same exact time of the Feast of Unleavened Bread in order to prepare for our new life to come. Jesus called Himself “the Bread of Life” (Ex. 12:14-20).

1 Corin. 15:20 The Son of God...Jesus, then rose from death on the next Feast # 3—Feast of Firstfruits – the Early Harvest Feast, at the same exact time of the Early Harvest Feast # 3--Sunday. Jesus was called the “firstfruit.”

Acts 1:6-8 , Acts 2:1-4, 32-33, Jesus said the Holy Spirit would come to Jesus’ followers ...and Jesus, through the Holy Spirit, also appeared on Feast # 4 to His disciples at the same exact time of Pentecost...Feast # 4—which celebrates the Long Harvest to come at the beginning of the summer.

The end of this world will come with the final harvest of souls...possibly to coincide with Israel’s Final Harvest Feast - # 5, in that final year...whatever year it is. These Feasts were given by God to Moses to keep for all time. The first 4 Feasts of Israel have already been fulfilled by Jesus...fulfilled exactly to the very day by Jesus (see Feasts of Israel Study at Target Truth Ministries.com).

The 5th Feast is called the “Final Harvest” Feast. Now that God has provided the Messiah’s birth, as well as the blood sacrifice payment made for all those who trust in Jesus to be restored if they become “born again” (John 3:1-7)...and now that the nation of Israel, as well as many other nations, have been restoral (Israel and all these other nations being restored in 1948)...well...God’s chosen nation, and the world, are now being given one last chance before the final judgment of Jesus’ return—one generation...a generation beginning in 1948, and ending by...2068 ? This date being the absolute maximum period of God’s patience with mankind--120 years after 1948.

Today, we are now in that long harvest of souls – within the 120 year period of the generation after 1948. Jesus, one-by-one is fulfilling the 7 Feasts given by God to Moses. Jesus said He will return to harvest the world—perhaps at the Final Harvest period, at some year in the near future at the time of the Final Harvest Feast (# 5). Feast # 5 is called “The Final Harvest”, and...it is also called “New Years Day” when the books of life are opened – which points directly to the Millennium—a new day begins with the millennium. And, ironically, Feast # 5 is the only Feast of Israel which no one knows the day or hour it should be celebrated—remember Jesus’ words—Matt. 25:13. This is because this Feast is picked by observing the dark moon...and the moon stays dark for 2 ½ days...so the Rabbi’s pick one...not knowing the exact one. So...will Jesus return some year at Feast # 5 ? And remember...Jesus said it will be sooner than 2068 (Matt. 24:22).

Matthew 24:15-16 and Mark 13:14, tells us that the Holy Place (the Temple / Tabernacle), will be established before the end of time. And...two witnesses will be at the Holy Place 3 ½ years prior to the end (Rev. 11:1-3— see message 2 Witnesses at Target Truth Ministries).

Tied in with this... the last days are described as the days of the Locusts (Rev. 9:1-3), and the 2 Witnesses which are killed during the last days (Rev. 11:1-12), are resurrected at the end of the 5 months that the locusts are active (after Woe 2 – Rev. 11)...which is from May to September / October...which is coincidently when the Final Harvest Feast (# 5), occurs...September / October (see the Book of Chronologies & Time Charts at Target Truth Ministries.com).

One last thought...thinking back to Moses and the Exodus, where the people were reluctant to trust in God...just as many today are reluctant to trust in Jesus...God caused Israel to remain in the wilderness for 40 additional years before their descendants could go into the Promised Land (Numb. 14:34-35, 32:13). Today, the 6,000 years since creation are either now finished (2017), or soon will be. And, today the 7th day (millennium) is about to begin. And, today millions of people know about Jesus, but still do not trust in Him. Will God, as in Moses' day, wait 40 more years...from 2017 until at least 2057 before Jesus' arrival and our being welcomed into the "Promised Land"? 2068 would seem to be the outermost date...120 years (a generation), after 1948 (Luke 21:29-32), but don't forget that Jesus said this time would be shortened (Matt. 24:22).

Are you, or your children, or grandchildren prepared to meet the Creator and Redeemer when Feast 5 takes place this year? Could the next Feast # 5 be the last day? The final harvest could be sooner than anyone imagines ! See any locusts out there ?

This is a pretty bold position to take in looking at the future. I only suggest we consider the prophecies and consider our urgent need to trust in Jesus, or...watch the world continue to ignore Jesus. Remember, Jesus said we should listen to Moses and the prophets (Luke 16:31). And, we know that God speaks to us in various riddles, and puzzles, and parables (Numb. 12:8; Isa. 45:15).

By the way...Islam has a date of 2076 for the end. And...Islam states that the final Imam has already been born. And...Islam believes its' prophets ! So...get ready !

Actually, as I first wrote about this in 2018, Israel was already preparing the Holy Place. The Holy Place (a Tabernacle tent), is ready to set up on any day right now...as soon as it can be determined where the exact location of the first Temple was in the city of David.

The Tabernacle...the tent of offering (which Israel used to begin sacrifices at the time of David...before the stone building could be erected and established), is ready to go right now. In other words, Israel can establish the Holy Place in one day! So, likewise, this prophecy of the abomination of the Temple can happen very soon—perhaps any year now! Certainly by 2068. See 3rd Temple & 4th at Target Truth Ministries.com.

Israel is, as I write this in 2018, trying to identify the exact spot where the Temple / Tabernacle should be erected. By the way...the exact spot is in the "City of David"...not the traditional so called "Temple Mount." And...the historic site Israeli archeologists are today excavating is...get this...a vacant abandoned piece of land in the old city of David...and they have discovered a pool of running water at this site ! As you will recall, the Temple required a pool of running water for the blood sacrifices. Only God could have prepared all this.

If "This Generation" that Jesus referred to is prophesied to end no later than 2068, then, we would expect to see the "Tabernacle" erected no later than 2061, which is 6 + years (2,300 days – Dan. 8:14), before the absolute end of "this generation." Of course, we must remember that Jesus said He would shorten the time (Matt. 24), meaning that if the "Tabernacle" is erected in ...let's say...2044, that we should expect the end possibly to be no more than 2,300 days later—in 2050...and possibly even sooner if Jesus shortens the 2,300 days also. Whatever year is the end, it will culminate with the 5th feast, which is called "The Final Harvest"...which is the next feast for Jesus to fulfill ! Are we ready ?

Israel celebrates 7 Feasts during every year. Some might wonder...what about Feasts 6 and 7 ? Doesn't Jesus have to fulfill these too? The answer is YES! Feast # 6 (atonement), is when the books of life are closed...after 10 days which will finally end in darkness (10 days being symbolic of the 1,000 years of the Millennium - Feast # 5...leading to the darkness which begins with Feast # 6). During the Millennium (Feast # 5), the books of life remain open, but the books of life will be closed at the very end (Feast # 6), and all those who still deny Jesus will be sent to Hell...darkness. The 7th Feast celebrates Israel arriving in the Promised Land...and will, in the future, represent our arrival in the New Heaven & Earth, where Jesus will reign as our Savior forever. For the Jewish people this feast of Ingathering, or Tabernacles (Feast # 7), celebrates the end of their 40 years of waiting to go into the Promised Land, and then finally going into the Promised Land and the harvest which awaited them. You'll recall that in Numbers 13:25, that God had given Israel 40 days to scout out their Promised Land, but Israel would not trust in God to provide, so God condemned Israel to wait one year outside the Promised Land for each day they were allowed to see the land (Numb. 14:33-34). In the Promised Land, Solomon dedicated the Temple of God during this Feast # 7 of Ingathering, or Tabernacles, because it represents Israel's arrival to the Promised Land (1 Kings 8:1-32) (see Study The 7 Feasts of Israel...Target Truth Ministries.com). This 7th Feast, for those who trust in Jesus and are saved, represents our arrival in the Promised Land...the New Heaven and Earth.

So, Jesus will fulfill all 7 of the Feasts given by God for Israel to remember every year.

Ironically, the world seems to be going in the wrong direction...moving away from the worship of Jesus - even here in America. This is our call from the Bible to get even more serious about spreading the Good News...sharing the message of salvation and eternal life with Jesus...or...eternal darkness without Jesus. And, we need to share the "Good News" with all the people...especially those NOT attending church. I want everyone to know!

Jesus is returning...and we shouldn't be surprised !

(ET), that the worship of Amon (Amun- one God), became prominent in Egypt. Amon (Amun) is known as the invisible god, the hidden god, the “breath of life” that animates life, a spirit present everywhere, who also created the world. It seems possible that Israel influenced Egypt into their “one god” worship – Amon, the God of the Amo.	1700 B.C. ET

		NC Ex. 1:7-8; Acts 7:17-20 The Exodus begins. The Pharaoh of Moses time was a leader from the Hyksos (“another” refers to “another kind” – Hyksos – Septuagint reads “Goshen of Arabia” – Gen. 45:10, 46:34). Ex. 2:15 Moses goes to Midian (Saudi Arabia). Ex. 4:19 Moses hears from God at Mt. Horeb (Mt. Sinai – Ex. 3:1, 12, 19:20, 24:16). Gal. 4:25 The Holy Mountain is in Arabia -(in Paul's day the Sinai was part of Arabia also).	ET – is that Ahmose defeats Hyksos (1440). Some see Ahmose as “another kind” as now an Egyptian was King after 200 years (ET). But, Ex. 1:10-12, states that “a long time period” elapsed between the new king and the Exodus. More likely Hyksos were defeated by Ahmose due to plagues weakening Hyksos.
		Ex. 8:27 The Holy Mountain is a 3 day's journey away from Egypt (out of Egypt). Egypt controls the Sinai area. So, the Holy Mountain is a 3 day's journey eastward from the Sinai area. The easternmost area of Egypt is Timna, at the north of the Gulf of Aqaba. Timna is also a Midianite tribal area. (1). Historians agree that large populations would travel about 15 km per day (or about 7 to 8 miles) – They, of course, could travel further, if need be. (1, 2, 3). Egypt at the time of building the pyramids, had a population of about 3 million according to historians, and would have had a population of about 6 million at the time of the Exodus...over one million of which would have been Israel (5)

They left Avaris on the 14th day of the 1st month...So, this is 30 days out (2). Mt. Sinai is also an 11 day journey from Kadish-barnea (Deut. 1:2) Check the map – traditional Mt. 2300 “Evenings & Mornings” to the return of CHRIST 2300 “Evenings & Mornings” to the return of CHRIST	Dan. 8:14	2300 days left (2200/2400). Double meaning – This symbolically occurred before 164 B.C., (the transgression of desolation – the abomination in the holy temple). But, between the desolation and the cleansing, there were only 1080 days (3 years). (Matt. 24:15 – See Hanukkah message, where Jesus fulfilled Hanukkah, and 9th/10th of Av message about the temple at Target Truth Ministries.com). This prophecy (Dan. 8:3-27), will be fulfilled in the end times and be 2300 days (2,200-2,400). The temple will be destroyed, toward the end of the 2300 days (the last day – The Lord’s Day). Temple will be rebuilt by Christ for the millennium (Zech. 6:12-15, 13:1, 14:8; Ezek 47:1) Evening and morning description means these are actual days (and not years, as is common in prophesy). 2,300 is total number of days from the beast rising to power, to the sacrifice being removed, and then to Jesus’ return. Sanctuary will be cleansed at the end of 2300 days – Christ will cleanse it (rebuild it). Some say 2,300 evenings and mornings actually equals 1,150 days (1,150 evening sacrifices, and 1,150 morning sacrifices – the daily sacrifice was an evening and morning event. However, Dan. 12:11 says sacrifice is taken away 1,290 days before the end time, meaning that 1,150 days are too few, whereas, the 2,300 days would apply. The sacrifice could be removed 2,300 days before the cleansing from Israel (Dan. 8:11), but the sacrifice is given over to the nations (Dan. 8:12), as a false religion of the nations.
	Dan. 8:14-27	A return of a ram (bear) – then a goat (the leopard of Dan. 7:6 – broken into four – see page 39-40 – Germany / Islam)...then the Abomination
BLESSED ARE THOSE WHO ENDURE 1335 DAYS	Dan. 12:11-12	Verse 11 states there will be 1,290 days left until the abomination (then 45 days to end). 1,335 minus 1,290 equals 45. Per this verse, the sacrifice will be taken away, and the end will be in 1,335 days.
The Restrainer is about to REMOVE HIS RESTRAINT	2 Thess. 2:3-12	First a falling away—as people accept the false prophet. Falling away is departing , not falling short. Then, the archangel Michael will no longer hold back evil (Dan. 10:12-13, 21,12:1; Rev. 12:7-9, 13-17; Matt. 24:9-13).
	Zech. 5:5-11	Evil held back until the end times.

Revelation - Jesus gave John several looks at how the end times will unfold and they are not in any chronological order – just several descriptions.

TEMPLE for the Millennium – Ezekiel

Pastor Gerry Burney - Box 1299, Ukiah, Calif. 95482 Target Truth Ministries.com

Ezekiel 40-47: These chapters describe the temple to be constructed by Christ, when He sets up His millennial reign, after the last day of the tribulation of the end times.

Isaiah 2:1-4: God will establish His house on the holy mount in Jerusalem and cause all nations to worship in peace until the final judgment...the second death at the end of the millennium.

Isaiah 33:17-24: The tabernacle at Jerusalem will forever be established, and no more will we be sick. Peace will reign.

Isaiah 66:18-20: God will bring all nations to His new house on the holy mount.

Hebrews 7:12-25: God gives us a new covenant (a change from the old laws and temple sacrifices, to the new temple and memorials).

Jeremiah 31:31-34: Jesus is the new covenant.

Zechariah 3:7-10: Jesus will be the new covenant.

Isaiah 42:1-9: Jesus will reign as the new covenant, and establish the righteous to teach His Word.

Isaiah 49:8-13: Jesus will be the new covenant.

Ezekiel 43:13-27: A sacrificial altar (but, a new covenant). These sacrifices are for a memorial of what Christ has done in fulfilling the Passover.

Ezekiel 45:18-20: Sacrifices do cover sins of “error”, or “simple” for the non-elect (In other words, sins which are accidental or unintentional, not willful sin or iniquity of the non-elect...those who will never worship Jesus). In the old temple covenant, the blood covered all sins for all Israel (Lev. 16:21-22). In the millennium, willful sinners will be cursed (Isa. 65:20)...and to be cursed is to be sentenced to hell (Deut. 21:22-23; Gal.1:8-9). The blood sacrifice is God’s way of memorializing the sacrifice of Jesus, and also demonstrating how sacrifice pays the debt of death for sin...even unintentional sin. Note the symbolic nature of placing the blood on the door posts and gates—symbolic of the Passover of the old covenant, when death would pass them by. Jesus’ sacrifice was the complete fulfillment of all the sins of the elect, and no more sacrifice is necessary, but God uses these memorials as a symbolic way of recalling what Jesus did, how He suffered, and these sacrifices do cover unintentional sins of the non-elect during the millennium (Jesus’ sacrifice was for sins of elect, not all sins of all mankind – see Matt. 20:28; Isa. 53:11; Rev. 5:9; Jn. 10:11-18, 25-30; 2 Pet. 3:9; Jn. 17:6, 9; Matt. 26:28; Mk. 14:24; Heb. 9:15, 28).

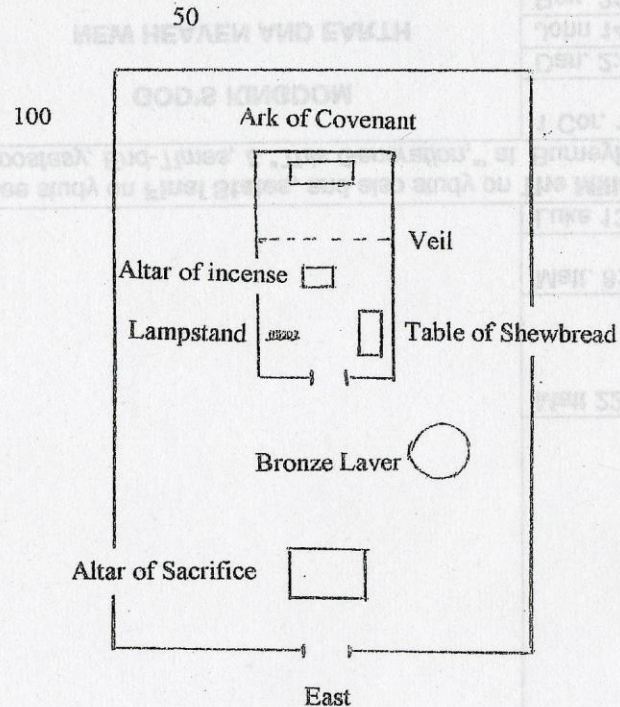

Jeremiah 3:16: No ark needed. No ark listed in Ezekiel passages here, for this new millennial temple. Contents have been fulfilled. 10 Commandment: Jesus is the Word (John 1:1-14). Manna: Jesus is the manna from heaven (John 6:49-51). Aaron’s rod (resurrection/new life)...Jesus is the resurrection and the life (John 11:25-26).

Also not in the new temple of the millennium period:

- Veil of separation. Because of Jesus’ atonement (payment of the debt of death for the sins of the elect), there is no separation from God for the elect (Matt. 27:50-51; Heb. 10:19-20.)
- Menorah or candlestick. Jesus is the Light of the world (John 1:4, 8:12).
- Table of Shewbread. Jesus is the bread of life (John 6:35).
- Altar of Incense. Jesus’ sacrifice is sufficient for all sins of the elect (Heb. 9:11-12).
- Laver of brass. Jesus has cleansed all elect from their sin (Eph. 5:25-26; Heb. 10:21-22).
- Human high priest. Jesus is now our high priest (Heb. 10:11-14).

EVENT	REFERENCE	REMARKS
SATAN RELEASED	Rev. 20:7-15	Satan released and he gathers up the north and the south—Gog and Magog—to fight and they are destroyed.
	Rev. 20:9-21:1	The earth is scorched. The final destruction of the millennial age. Satan, the devil, death and hell—those who denied God—are all cast into the fire to join the beast and false prophet.
SATAN DEFEATED	Rev. 20:11	Great White Throne judgment. This is the final judgment to hell (the “bema” seat judgement is to establish rewards for those who will be in Paradise at the first resurrection / rapture--2 Cor. 5:10; Jn. 5:27; Rev. 22:12).
SATAN JUDGED	Matt. 25:32-40	Blessed receive their inheritance – the kingdom
	Matt. 25:41-46	Fire is for Satan and the angels who reject Jesus – (people exist in their “angelic” supernatural bodies in the millennium – see the Angels & Humans section of the book “ Eden to Evil ”) Flesh people are not mentioned, flesh having been destroyed at the end of the tribulation. Note that there is no rapture or resurrection stated for these alive in the millennium. This is because they already exist in their supernatural bodies. The second death is the supernatural body being forever tormented in outer darkness...eternally. The only resurrection is for those in Hades, who are the condemned dead, resurrected to be judged and separated.
	Matt 22:11-14	Those who are born into the millennium, and deny Jesus, are cast out. The bride is now complete and is revealed – Feast 6 – books of life closed
	Matt. 8:11-12	Many who want to be in the kingdom of God are cast out (Matt. 7:21-23).
	Luke 13:28	Many who want to be in the kingdom of God are cast out.

GOD’S KINGDOM NEW HEAVEN AND EARTH	1 Cor. 15:24-28	When Jesus is done, the Godhead (Trinity) is restored—“All in All.”
	Dan. 2:44	New kingdom.
	Lev. 23	Feast 7 - Promised Land – New Heaven & Earth
	John 14:1-3	God’s house has many mansions.
	Rev. 21 and 22	Description of new heaven and earth. What shape is the New Jerusalem? A cube or a pyramid? Gold to us is but pavement to God!

Daniel 9:24-27

- The "he" in Daniel 9:27 is a reference to an evil end-time leader...not to Jesus.
- All faiths agree a week in prophecy equals a week of years—7 years (Ezek. 4:6; Numb.14:34). Whether the year is 360 days (Hebrew), or 365 days (Roman), is the question.

Positions of various faiths:

70 weeks Begin

70th week Concludes

Jewish: Daniel's prophecy begins in 586 B.C.—Decree of Cyrus (Ezra 1).

69th week ends in 103 B.C. (birth of the evil Hasmonian leader Yannai.

 Does not fulfill Daniel 9:24.

70th week is the life of Yannai, and ends in 76 B.C. with his death.

 Does not match at all with the 7 plus 62 (69) plus 1 years—Prophecy is supposedly only symbolic.

Seventh Day Adventists Daniel's prophecy begins in 457 B.C.—Third Decree of Artaxerxes—to set up government (Ezra 7).

& Mormon:

69th week ends in 27 A.D. with baptism of Jesus, and the last year (70) then begins.

 Does not fulfill Daniel 9:24.

Jesus is killed in middle of 70th week, which ends in 34 A.D.

 Uses 365 day years—not 360.

 457 B.C. is incorrect—Scholars agree with 445 B.C.

 27 A.D. is incorrect date—Scholars agree the 15th year of reign of Tiberius Caesar (Luke 3:1-23), was from August 28 A.D. to August 29 A.D.—not 27 A.D.

Jehovah's Witness: Daniel's prophecy begins in 455

B.C.—Fourth Decree of Artaxerxes—to restore city and walls (Neh. 2).

69th week ends in 29 A.D. with baptism of Jesus, and the last year (70) then begins.

 Does not fulfill Daniel 9:24.

Jesus is killed in middle of 70th week, which ends in 36 A.D.

 Uses 365 day years—not 360.

 455 B.C. is incorrect—Scholars agree with 445 B.C.

Islam: Daniel's prophecy begins in (1) 1948 A.D. (Israel) $20+20+20+(2 \times 7=14) = 74$ years—Israel will be totally destroyed by 2022 (1948 to 2022=74 years).

Or, (2) 1948 A.D. (Israel) 70 years will end in 2018 with destruction of America's power (Israel's ally—symbolic of Northern tribes dispersed before Judah and Jerusalem were finally destroyed).

Or, (3) The last week of 7 years is $x 7$ (49 years), and related to Jerusalem being restored to Israel in 1967 ($1967 + 49=2016$), the beginning of the troubled times of the very end.

- Current prophecy uses Isaiah 19:20, and predicts August 3-4 of 2013-2014 is the prophecy of the arrival of the Mahdi to Iran is from an ancient manuscript held in Suleymaniye Library in Turkey—# 3664/Al-medina Al-Munawana.
- To summarize...2013-2014—Mahdi arrives > 2016—week of tribulation begins > 2018—America fails > 2022—the end of Israel.
- Iran states the end of the world will occur in their year 1500—which is our year 2076—and that the Mahdi is now alive as of 2015

Fundamental: Daniel's prophecy begins in 445 B.C.—Fourth Decree of Artaxerxes—to restore city and walls (Neh. 2).

69th week ends on the exact day Jesus is revealed as Messiah when He enters Jerusalem, and then is killed (cut off—Dan. 9:26) in 32 A.D.--173,880 days exactly (John 12:12-19).

1) 70th week (7 years of trouble), will occur at Jesus 2nd coming.

OR

2) 70th week (7 years of trouble), occurs at the end of the Millennium (Rev. 20:19).

 Does use 360 day years. 69 weeks (483 years of 360 days each) would equal about 477 years on the Roman calendar (of 365 days—173,880 days—exactly fulfilled).

 Does fulfill Daniel 9:24 (none of the other interpretations fulfill this).

 455 B.C., and 457 B.C. are incorrect—Scholars agree with 445 B.C.

See the prophecy 2068 on page 24...or at Target Truth Ministries.com videos under 2068 tab

This 70th Week will actually occur at the end of the Millennium (Dan. 9: 22-27; Rev. 20:10)

TRUTH MATRIX

A Comparison

of Faiths, and EVIDENCE for their Beliefs

JEWISH 15 million 13th (see Text Timeline Study at Target Truth Ministries.com)	There are various sects of the faith. Everyone can obtain eternal life if they keep the law—God will send the Messiah to establish Jewish control and bring peace. Some believe in no existence beyond this life – they live on in generations and in deeds. some believe in resurrection – Modern sect reincarnation. No hell – Gehenna is purgatory to cleanse the soul.	One God—YHWH-- the God who spoke to Abraham and told him to leave his people and their tribal god's / No Trinity. Modern sect is - “God is all and all is God”- oneness.	Observe the Torah—the law, do not marry outside the faith / seek peace, do good deeds, respect family. Modern sect - 5 levels of soul 1) blood – life itself 2) mind – emotion etc. 3) community – family etc. 4) Saints – the blessed 5) Divine – presence of God.	Biblical miracles witnessed / prophecy fulfilled 100% / Actual documents thousands of years old/ 2,000 prophecies fulfilled in the Old Testament
CATHOLIC (Rome) 800 million 9th (see Queen of Heaven Study at Target Truth Ministries.com)	All will go to Heaven or Hell—saved for eternity by the grace of God and faith in Jesus Christ / If sin, one must “renew” salvation—the church and priests must perform sacraments to “ensure” salvation / Purgatory is required to complete cleansing after death / The Pope is the supreme authority. The Holy Spirit proceeds from both Father and Son. Mary was conceived immaculately. Baptism is the first resurrection. Jesus now dwells on earth in His church. The Apocalypse will be the battle of the church against evil. 1,000 years is symbolic of eternal life. The 2nd resurrection is the end of the world, and the final judgment. Language is Latin.	One God in 3 persons-- a Trinity—YHWH / JESUS / HOLY SPIRIT Jn. 10:30, Jn. 14:5-14 Church leaders are to reinterpret Holy Scriptures using traditions handed down – John 10:38, Heb. 1 2 Pet. 1:1, Philip. 2:5-11 Baptism is by sprinkling. The resurrection is the focus at Easter. “The Pope is Jesus, hidden under the veil of flesh, and it is Jesus Himself who is speaking” (Pope Pius X). The Popes still possesses apostolic powers. However, Bible states no new revelation after the Apostles (Acts 2:1-4, 1 Corin. 13:8-10). The text is complete “perfect” - Greek “telelos” means “complete” - a definite point or limit.	Holy Bible is the word of God / One is to love and care for others—teach the lost the way to Heaven and true peace—JESUS / repent and turn away from sin / trust in Jesus/ Baptism is a means of grace and salvation Jesus is God-eternal and uncreated Matt. 28:18.	Biblical miracles witnessed / Jesus miracles witnessed / Jesus material rise from death witnessed by hundreds over several weeks – 1 Corin. 15:1-8, Acts 1:1-5 / prophecy fulfilled 100 % / Actual documents thousands of years old.
PROTESTANT 500 million 11th	Saved by the Grace of God, and faith in Jesus—Groups split on the following: A) If you accept Jesus, and still sin, you are still saved for eternity B) You can accept Jesus and be saved, and later deny Jesus and not be saved	One God in 3 persons-- a Trinity—YHWH / JESUS / HOLY SPIRIT Jesus sacrifice was all	View of life is same as Catholic above. Gal. 1:8-9 – Don’t believe false angles (Mormon and Islam) Phil. 2:5-11 – God (Jesus-uncreated) became flesh.	Yes - evidence is the same as above.

(see Text Timeline Study at Target Truth Ministries.com)	C) If you accept Jesus, and sin without regret, you really weren't saved All) If you deny Jesus outright, you go to eternal damnation / Hell Split between denominations concerning the existence of certain spiritual gifts (tongues, healing, prophecy - 1 Corin. 13:8-10 states that these existed only until the Scripture was complete with the death of the Apostles – “perfect” in Greek is telelos , which means complete, completeness).	that is needed for saving / No sacraments needed for salvation / no Purgatory.	Matt. 7:21-23 – Jesus may deny you. John 14:6 – The ONLY way to heaven. Jesus will return, and the resurrection of saved will take place. Jesus will establish His kingdom on earth for 1000 years. The resurrection of saved will take place, and babies are born during the 1000 years (all those who were deceived or never heard God's call to salvation will be born into the millennium. At end of 1000 years, Jesus will judge unbelievers to eternal separation (the great divorce), and all believers to eternal paradise – Eden (the Great Marriage – Rev. 19-20).
PENTACOSTAL 400 million 3 rd	Same as above with the additional requirement of experiencing God in you when you are saved—speaking in tongues—falling down etc. (1 Corin. 13:8-10 – see above).	Same as above	Same as above / some groups believe words have power. Some believe certain individuals have the power of healing (1 Corin. 13:8-10).	Yes – Evidence is the same as above.
EASTERN ORTHODOX CATHOLIC 200 million 12 TH	Same as Catholic above, except the Pope in Rome is not the supreme authority - Archbishop is in Constantinople. The atonement is the focus at Easter, not the resurrection. Split from Rome in 1054. Language is Greek.	Same as Catholic above, except that the Holy Spirit proceeds from God the Father alone. Mary was not conceived immaculately. Baptism is by immersion.	Same as Catholic above	Yes – Evidence is the same as above.
MORMON 10 million 1 st	Must be faithful to Mormon church to be saved / 3 heavens & 1 hell / everyone can become a god / The faithful go to the celestial heaven. The ignorant, but honorable, to the terrestrial, and unbelievers to telestial. Adam did not sin, he opened our eyes to knowledge. Hell is for Hitler types, and all those who leave the Mormon Church. Mormon saying – “As God once was, man is. As God is, man may become.” God (heavenly father), exists on a planet near a star named “Kolob” with his many goddess wives producing spirit children to be born into this world. Jesus will return to Independence, Mo., and establish the three kingdoms - Telestial, Terrestrial, and Celestial.	God was once a man / each man can become a god over a planet / Trinity refers to purpose only—not to persons / the virgin conception of Mary was by God the Father, an exalted man / Jesus was only a man, and became a god. The Holy Spirit is only a force. Jesus and Satan are brothers (see also Jehovah's Witness). Jesus was the first born to the Man-god (Isa. 44:6, 45:5-21, 46::9-10).	Do good works / love and care of family / seek peace / be faithful to the church / church elders commonly reinterpret scripture / Jesus had 3 wives, and Joseph Smith was a descendant of Jesus. At the resurrection, wives will be called forth by the husbands. Grace – provides the resurrection, but we are saved by works (Eph. 2:1-9-no works).	No evidence —over 4000 changes have been made to the book of Mormon which was a revelation to Joseph Smith in the 1800's by an angel in a cave (see Islam). Gal. 1:8-9; Heb. 1:1-2 Leader Joseph Smith shown to be a false prophet.

CHRISTIAN SCIENTIST

Salvation to get to heaven comes from a life of sacrifice and denial—sin does not really exist, and the body cannot die because matter really has no life / salvation requires prayer, and fighting against evil—which is only the opposite of truth, and God is truth, the only reality.

Only God is real – the eternal principle, or mind / Jesus was just a man, and showed us it is possible to transcend this world and go to heaven.

Seek peace / pray and fight evil / endure and believe in only good, and health, and these will become so / positive thinking / there is no death as death is an illusion.

None – Claim a 75% healing rate – however, Medical science says 80% of illness will heal itself without treatment.

Jesus will return visibly to take believers to heaven for 1000 years. The earth is then either a wilderness, or a place where forced evangelism takes place for unbelievers. After 1000 years, the kingdom is established back on earth, and unbelievers are annihilated. There is no eternal punishment (hell), which the Bible states there is (Matt. 25:46). Final atonement for sin will be accomplished when Jesus lays all sins on Satan (the goat). Satan will bear our sins, not Jesus as the Bible states (Isa. 53:6, 12; Jn 1:29; 1 Pet. 2:24-25).

Works are promoted as a means of securing One's place in heaven (Eph. 2:8-9-no works).

Jesus born with a sinful nature, not unique as the Bible states (only begotten - unique - Jn. 1:1-3,14). Ellen White is their prophet, and claims that Jesus on the cross secured the believers pardon, but their sins remain on the books, until the investigation (which began in 1844), is complete, and the goat (Satan) is sent into the wilderness. Spirit is only a "life force" (breath of life), sleeps at death with the body and soul (which is inseparable). But, this denies the Bible (Eccl. 12:7).

Jesus returned in 1843-1844 and is now in heaven for the purpose of investigating those who claim to be faithful. We are on probation. Atonement on the cross by Jesus is not complete. Jesus is pleading our case now to the Father to blot out only our confessed sins from the book (However, Bible states atonement for sin is complete (John 19:30-in Greek means "Paid in full"; Rom. 5:6-11; 1 Pet. 2:24-25)).

Yes same evidence for Jesus power over death as Catholic / Protestant above. End times belief based upon misreading of Dan. 8:14 (2300 days-not years), and Dan. 9:25-27 (445 not 457 BC), and misunderstanding of spirit (eternal) and death (separation). The Clear Word Bible contains the ideas of Prophet Ellen White.

God is Jehovah / 144,000 are in, or will go to heaven, other believers will remain on earth, the unbelievers are eliminated at death / no eternal hell / must be faithful to Jehovah's church to be saved. (Came out of 7th Day Adventist in 1800's) Believe one's spirit dies with the flesh, but God is able to recreate believers, which is not biblical (Eccl. 12:7).

Jesus is the angel Michael in the flesh. Jesus (Michael) is the same as (equal to) Satan (see also Mormon). No virgin birth.

No resurrection of Jesus – he was only a gas spirit.

God is Jehovah / Jesus is only a divinely created being / Holy Spirit is only a force / the Trinity is a plural of majesty / Jesus said to have returned in 1874, and went to Heaven, and returned again after 40 years of harvest in 1914-1918, to the Jehovah Witness temple (which are the members of the J.W. church). (Acts 1:9-12, Rev. 1:7)

The Watchtower organization is the prophetic voice of truth / the Bible must be reinterpreted by the church / Do good service—good works / seek peace—serve the church Phil. 2:5-11, 1 John 4:1-3, 2 John 1:7, Eph. 2:8-9-no works Avoid holidays etc., because Satan uses government, flag salutes, birthdays, etc. to deceive and deter us from God.

No evidence - many changes have been made to the revelations of the Watchtower. Many changes in Bibles' words related to the divinity of Jesus, even though none of the Watchtower people are a recognized Greek Scholar (Heb. 1:1-2).

Jesus said to have returned in 1874, and went to heaven, and was to return again after 40 years of harvest in 1914-1918. Another version of 1914 is that from 607 BC, (a date thought to be correct for Jerusalem's destruction - not 587-6 BC as history shows), to the year 1914 matches with 7 x 360 days in the Jewish year (or 2,520 years prophetically). 1914 was changed to 1925, then again changed to 1975, and they have now concluded that Jesus resides within the members of their church. Jesus supposedly established His kingdom in heaven, and cast Satan to earth permanently (but Jesus did not visibly return for His followers as the Bible states He will do - John 14:3; Acts 1:11). Jesus will return to fight the battle of Armageddon, and then all believers and non-believers will be recreated, and during the 1000 years, unbelievers are given up to 100 years to convert, or be annihilated.

The last Buddha taught the path of meditation – no sacrifice, no self-affliction, only meditation to achieve acceptance of life, and acceptance equals nirvana. We will be reincarnated until we eliminate suffering (Heb. 9:27). There is no soul, no self, only suffering or peace / goal is to reach nirvana—salvation and nirvana can be reached if Buddha will accept you in the Pure Land where you can more easily obtain good karma. Ignorance, not sin, is the roadblock to salvation. The life force, or consciousness goes beyond death. Like Hindu, the last thought conditions the rebirth. Cremation is normal – can keep body up to 3 years in case of violent death, to enable consciousness to correctly move on. Re-birth is into various realms – upper heaven, lower heaven, human or animal. A bad heavenly existence could result in a lower re-birth.

Buddha is not god. The soul extends beyond death, but may not be eternal. No god—only many lives until you reach nirvana. Sacred writings – Tripitaka, and Sutras. Teachings of Buddha are the Dharma – all existence is a creation of the mind / We suffer due to ignorance.

NEW AGE LINKS TO ANCIENT CIVILIZATIONS

People think they are being “independent” by removing themselves from God’s way. However, this “independence” is only another term for paganism, as even the “New Age” of Free Love, Open Homosexuality, Drugs, Body Piercing & Tattoos - all are actually only ancient pagan practices.
Each generation must determine, for itself, if it will humble itself, and follow God’s ways, or give itself over to the various pagan ways. Every “social norm” described by God, has a “pagan option.” We can trace pagan (against God) practices all the way back to Babylon. In fact, this move to independence (paganism), actually goes all the way back to Eden, and the pagan way of the serpent (Genesis 3), “Go ahead, you will be like God - empower yourself.” Each generation, in an effort to empower themselves, in an effort to free themselves from conventional society (to seek “independence”), will remove their support from the current conventional way (God’s way), and they actually transfer that support to the New Age (pagan way). Many young people in each generation tend to move to the pagan way, and then, as each generation ages, some will return to God.

The pagan ways from Babylon include :

Serpent Worship – seen as the creator god all over the ancient world (Egypt, Greece, Laos, America etc.) see Greek understanding – “Queen of Heaven.”

Body piercing, Tattoos, & Blood letting - From a clean body (Godly), to self embellishment (self), to perversion (blood letting - feeding Mother Earth).

Homosexuality & Gay Marriage - From one woman & man family for procreation, to self indulgence and expanded sexuality, to Earth friendly population control.

Abortion - From saving a life, to a self centered life style, to appeasing Mother Earth with population control.

Sex outside Marriage - From restraint, to open acceptance, to promiscuity. Spirituality of self frees people to experience natural emotions without guilt or obligation.

Alcohol and Drugs - From medical and healthy use, to indulgence, to dependence and abuse.

False Faiths - Different god, or gods, or being god oneself, or discovering the god within you (Karma and works salvation - energies and spirit powers within the created order of nature - faith in the natural, such as Mother Earth, science, evolution - Quest for an experience - Tolerance in place of any Truth.

Witchcraft, Yoga, Spirit Guides, Ascended Masters - Methods to reach “the force”, or the “god energy within”, or connect with the “natural divine order.”
