Genesis 6:1-4; Matthew 24:37-39

Halloween time reminds me of the evil which caused God to destroy all life on earth with the flood—all except Noah and his family that is. So much evil existed at that time, that God (in order to save us...in order to provide actual normal humans for Jesus to be born from), had to destroy it all (Gen. 6:5). Some people believe that there were millions of normal human people who were drowned in that flood. And, because of this belief that God destroyed normal humans that He had made (including babies and old people), many believe that the God of the Old Testament was a vicious blood thirsty being—not a loving God...and that abortion (killing babies), must be ok too. And, for this reason, many people have rejected God. The Bible tells us that God was grieved that He had to do this (Gen. 6:6-7—“repented” or “sorry” actually means “regretted”).

If God was grieved (regretted), that He had to destroy all this life, then why did He have to do it? God had to destroy the “mankind” (Gen. 6:7), because the human population had actually become a “hybrid mankind”—genetically altered. Only Noah was “perfect” in his generations (bloodline—Gen. 6:9). Noah's bloodline was perfect, not corrupted by Satan (Gen. 6:9—the King James says “perfect in his generations” and the NAS says blameless in his time—the Hebrew is “without blemish in his bloodline”). Satan had an evil plan to destroy God’s plan. God’s plan was to save people with the birth of Jesus through humans--not through some genetically altered beings which Satan had managed to produce.

This deception (that God kills people arbitrarily), is right out of Satan’s play book. Satan has deceived us into thinking that God had people (people like the normal human generations we see today—the generations after Noah), destroyed in the flood. And, today, Satan continues his deception by persuading millions of people to celebrate evil with a special day of fun called Halloween. But, both are evil and unbiblical. The human populations before the flood had been genetically altered—no longer actually human, and...Halloween is an evil deception, actually distorting the truth of what happens at death.

Come on now...Halloween is just a fun night, right? You know...dress up, and have fun. So what’s the harm, really? Today, our children don’t go to church, don’t understand God’s truth, but do encounter the occult. The harm is that by focusing on this type of holiday (and not recognizing that what it says about death and spirit beings is not true), many people begin to think of the dead, and death, in false and distorted ways. Even many Christians today, don’t truly understand what happens to a person when they die, and who these “spirit beings” may be (Matt. 7:21-23).

Kids, and even adults today, think that after death people’s spirits are out there, and can be seen, and heard, and they look down on us, and that we can talk to them. Satan likes this, because as long as everyone thinks that after they die they will be floating around somewhere (possibly able to come back to this world--even visit relatives on occasions), then people don’t see the need to really consider death, or hell as an end. After all, if our spirit is floating around here, what difference does it make if I’m a Christian, or Satanist, or non-believer? Supposedly, we’re all here together. Many people, today, actually believe this--that their loved ones are around here somewhere, and can be reached, and that they will somehow be all right--that God will somehow take care of things one day, including us, when we die. The truth is that God will not someday take care of everything. This is because He already has. 2,000 years ago. Jesus died for us 2,000 years ago, and He said trust in Him, and live. Deny Him, and spend eternity separated--isolated, alone, forever. God tells us in Ecclesiastes 9:5-6, and 1 Thessalonians 4:13-16, that the dead have no further connection with this earth age we are in. They are in heaven, asleep and at peace with God, or in hell, all awaiting the final judgment at the end of the millennium. God describes the dead as asleep, at rest, at peace, awaiting the resurrection to their new supernatural bodies (Psalms 139:8; John 11:11-14; Acts 7:60, 13:36; 1 Corin. 7:39, 11:27-32, 15:6, 15:17-18, 15:20, 15:51; 1 Thess. 4:13-15; 2 Peter 3:4). The dead are not floating around with us here (Job 7:7-10). Those who have passed on from this earth are asleep, at rest, at peace, and will awaken to their new resurrected body when Christ returns.

Today, we are raising up a generation of young people who accept goblins, and spirit beings, and ghosts, thinking of them as ancestors, or loved ones. There are spirit beings. But, these spirit beings, which we do encounter, are actually demons, not ancestors or loved ones, and they lead us to false beliefs and death--not Jesus. This generation doesn't know who Jesus truly is. This is why Halloween is so dangerous. Our children are receiving only information from the world (Satan's domain for the time being), and not getting any input from the Bible. Many believe in spirit beings, but not in Jesus Christ. Satan has offered in the past (and still offers us today), this alternative understanding of life after death, so that we will fail to trust in Jesus. Instead, Satan tries to deceive people into worshiping the earth, the environment, the sun, the moon, or demons, which do exist, but are not our loved ones. Satan wants people to worship things of this world, and forget about God's kingdom. God's kingdom, you'll recall, is not of this world (John 18:36). Don't forget, that science tells us that our universe and solar system is doomed—it is all on a path of eternal destruction according to science (see book Science, Origins, & Ancient Civilizations – Target Truth Ministries.com). Only God's kingdom will exist one day soon, along with hell (which is eternal separation from His kingdom), for those who ignore Him.

Halloween is one of those worldly celebrations embraced by the majority, and yet, abhorred by God, as it is an association with the practices of evil. The world asks us to accept Halloween, and even enjoy evil as fun, and entertaining, and appropriate. However, Halloween delivers a view of the afterlife which is not biblical, and, in fact, is false information, satanic, and not Godly. One doesn't need to read the Bible to understand this. The World Book Encyclopedia is available to those who do not accept the Bible (Halloween – October 31st – The eve of the Babylonian, and the Celtic New Year...celebrates the god of the wicked dead).

As long as we encourage holidays and celebrations of false beliefs, the more confused our children will be, and the harder it will be for them to understand the truth...that the only way to eternal life with God is through Jesus, who is fully God (John 10:30, 14:1-6; Acts 4:12).

So...how did Satan go about trying to destroy God's plan for us to be born human—born human so that those who love God could be born again (John 3:1-7)?

In Genesis 6:1-6, God describes for us how some of the host of heaven chose to follow Satan, remain true to Satan, and leave their place in heaven to deceive women on earth: “When men began to multiply on the face of the earth” (Gen. 6:1), refers to how the population was exploding during these days of Noah, just before the flood. Just as today, where it took from the flood of Noah until 1865 A.D. to reach one billion people on the earth, the population is currently growing at the rate of 250,000 each day (Matt. 24:37). In Genesis 6, God describes Satan's effort to control this earth age for himself, and destroy God's plan of redemption / reconciliation for all the fallen souls who are predestined to be redeemed and reconciled. Satan's plan is to destroy the bloodlines, or generations of humans. Births from these unions are the source of “giants” and demons, which are different from the evil heavenly host, which are fallen angels (demons are the result of the spirits of these “giants” being separated from the giant bodies, and now in need of a body—Mark 5:1-13). It is often pointed out that the host of heaven do not marry, but, the Bible does not say they can't unite with women on earth (Matt. 22:30; Mark 12:25; Luke 20:35).

In Genesis 6:3, God tells us that 120 years will be for humans. We are flesh, not as the “sons of God” (“bene ha-Elohim”), in verse 2 and 4. We are born into this flesh world, and take on flesh bodies. Some scholars interpret this 120 years as God using these for Noah to spread the truth of God before the flood (1 Pet. 3:18-20). Noah was a preacher (2 Pet. 2:5). This period of time could be significant for the end-times (see book Revelation, Apostasy, End Times, & This Generation—Target Truth Ministries.com).

Some scholars read this as humans only living as many as 120 years on earth, in order to decide to develop a relationship with Christ, or not. Genetically, science tells us that our bodies are degenerating each generation, and that in the distant past we could have lived longer.

Ever wonder about how humans could live so long (even up to 1,000 years), as written about in Genesis? Actually, those who lived in ancient Sumer, recorded on their clay tablets that people lived for very long times. Archaeologists have discovered documents from Sumer, China, Egypt, Greece, and Rome that support the Bible. Michio Kaku, of New York University, reported in 2008, on how Nobel Prize biologist, Paul Nurse, established that humans are not genetically programmed to die. There are no genes for aging. We die, because cells accumulate damage over time (due to cosmic radiation and free radical activity within the cell), and the repair process cannot keep up. Genetic biologists, Dr. Gordon Lithgow and Dr. Judith Campisi, from the Buck Institute for Age Research, in California, report that genes already exist within our genetic make-up to extend life by enhancing the repair process. Science tells us that humans should be able to live 1,000 years or more. Cambridge biologist Aubrey De Grey, is pursuing research to reverse aging by aggressive gene repair. Science now knows the Bible wasn't so far-fetched after all. Early humans had undamaged genes, and after several generations these genes have become damaged.

In Genesis 6:4-6, God tells us of the “Giants,” “sons of God,” “mighty men,” “men of renown,” and of evil continually. How is it that the host of heaven could be mistaken for people? God's Word tells us that many people have encountered angels and didn't even know it (Heb. 13:2). They appear as human as you or I. Perhaps this has happened to you or someone you know. Jesus appeared to people after His death and resurrection in His resurrected body (John 20:19). He was even able to materialize through walls—all supernatural. And yet, He appeared human (John 20:24-29). We are told that we will be like the angels and Jesus, in the resurrection to come (1 Cor. 15:49; 1 John 3:2).

So, on the one hand we welcome the prospect of becoming like the angels. And, on the other hand, in Ephesians 6:10-13, Paul tells us to be prepared to battle this world's darkness—the spiritual forces of evil from heavenly places. Here, we learn that some angelic forces are out to destroy our relationship with God.

The Bible reveals some pretty strange events in Genesis, and warns us that strange events will occur again in the end times (see Revelation). In Matthew 13:52, Jesus tells us that the true student of the Bible understands and values both what is old (Gen. 6:1-4), and what is new (2 Thess. 2:3-10). Jesus also warns us of what is future (Matt. 24:37-39). God tells us in Genesis 3:15, that the seed (generations/DNA) of the woman would bring forth the Savior (Jesus), to eliminate Satan and sin (bruise his head). The sacrifice of Jesus was predestined before the foundation of the world (Rev. 13:8). We also read in Genesis 3:15, that the seed (generations/DNA), of the serpent (Satan) would try and ruin the plan of God (this failed...only bruising Jesus' heel—Jesus lives today). The battle continues (1 Tim. 4:1-10).

Satan's initial plan was to destroy the seed (generations/DNA) of the human race so that Jesus could not be born. To do this, some of Satan's angels came to earth (Jude 6-7—they went after strange flesh), to begin populating the earth with giants / hybrids (Gen. 6:1-4—nephelim / giants, “men of renown”/ gibbor—giants). These hybrid giants' DNA would corrupt the DNA genome of future generations of humans. God's Word tells us the angels in heaven do not marry, but God's Word also tells us that angels did come to women here on earth (Gen. 6:1-4; Matt. 22:29-30).

This Halloween, let us consider the source of evil—Satan, and the fact that only Jesus cares enough for us to die for us so that we can be welcomed back into His kingdom for all eternity, as opposed to being separated and isolated from God for all eternity—hell. The evil continues for now. Soon it will end. Do you still want to “enjoy” the evil around you with Halloween parties—perhaps even welcoming a giant or two? I pray not! Know your Bible, and know your history.

Halloween time reminds me of the evil which caused God to destroy all life on earth with the flood—all except Noah and his family that is. So much evil existed at that time, that God (in order to save us...in order to provide actual normal humans for Jesus to be born from), had to destroy it all (Gen. 6:5). Some people believe that there were millions of normal human people who were drowned in that flood. And, because of this belief that God destroyed normal humans that He had made (including babies and old people), many believe that the God of the Old Testament was a vicious blood thirsty being—not a loving God...and that abortion (killing babies), must be ok too. And, for this reason, many people have rejected God. The Bible tells us that God was grieved that He had to do this (Gen. 6:6-7—“repented” or “sorry” actually means “regretted”).

If God was grieved (regretted), that He had to destroy all this life, then why did He have to do it? God had to destroy the “mankind” (Gen. 6:7), because the human population had actually become a “hybrid mankind”—genetically altered. Only Noah was “perfect” in his generations (bloodline—Gen. 6:9). Noah's bloodline was perfect, not corrupted by Satan (Gen. 6:9—the King James says “perfect in his generations” and the NAS says blameless in his time—the Hebrew is “without blemish in his bloodline”). Satan had an evil plan to destroy God’s plan. God’s plan was to save people with the birth of Jesus through humans--not through some genetically altered beings which Satan had managed to produce.

Notice, that after the flood, this same problem was taking hold again in the Promised Land (Gen. 15:18-21), and God instructed Israel to destroy all of them (Deut. 20:17-18). Satan was destroying the human population, and therefore, God commanded Israel to destroy the hybrid (giant) nations.

There are three Hebrew words to identify giants—nephal, rapha, and gibbor. The Bible gives numerous references to the generations of these various giants, beginning with the grandson of Noah—Nimrod (Gen. 10:8—“mighty one”—gibbor/giant). Nimrod led eventually to Amraphel and the Rephaites (Gen. 14:1-5—rapha/giants) at the time of Abram. Other great families were the Amakin, descendants of Amak (Num. 13:21-33—nephilim/giants), the Ammorites, also known as the Zamzummins (Deut. 2:19-21, 3:11—rephaim/giants), even up to Goliath and the Philistines (1 Sam. 17:51—“champion”—gibbor/giant).

God warned Israel not to mingle or intermarry with these nations, and to destroy them (Lev. 20:2-5—Molech-leader of the Amalekites—malek is Hebrew for “angel,” and Acts 7:43 links Moloch—malek—and rompha/rapha/giants). See also Deuteronomy 7:1-3, 20:17-18; and Ezra 9:1-2.

Jesus warned us that, just as in the days of Noah, this will occur in the last days (Matt. 24:37-39; Rev. 9:1-12; Dan. 2:40-43; 1 Tim. 4:1-3). Note that since the time of Jesus, that evil has been restrained (2 Thess. 2:3-10), but that evil will return in the end times (Rev. 9:1-11).

All ancient cultures from all over the world have stories concerning: 1) Zodiac, 2) Dragons (dinosaurs), 3) Spirit beings (or angels), coming to earth, 4) Giants, and 5) A great flood – the obelisks of ancient Egypt and the pyramids of Caral Peru were constructed 4,000 years ago to tell the people how high the flood waters were that covered the earth, according to archeologists. The common source of all these stories would be Noah, whose generations spread to all parts of the world—including Noah’s grandson, Nimrod, a giant who started a pagan religion in the land of Babylon (Gen. 10:8-10; Rev. 17:5).

“Giants” (gigantis, or genenes) in the Septuigint, means “earth-born” (part celestial, part terrestrial in origin), “under,” “beneath,” “inferior,” “falling short,” or “lacking.” In other translations, the Hebrew word (nefeel, or nephel), is used, which means fallen ones, or something fallen (an untimely birth, miscarriage, abortion, bully, tyrant, cast down, cast out, or a fallen giant). In Numbers 13:28-33, and Deuteronomy 3:11, they are described as being large (giants). These are the children of the fallen angels.

These fallen angels were of superior knowledge and power. Humans were warned not to begin to worship them.

They came directly to this age without being birthed into the earth (Ex. 20:4; Job 38:4-7; Jer. 1:5; Hos. 1:10; Matt. 25:41; Luke 19:10; John 1:11-13, 3:5, 13, 17:5-6; Rom. 3:25-26, 8:16,19-21, 29-30, 11:2; Gal. 4:6; Heb. 2:14-17; 1 Jn.2:2, 4:10, 5:6-8—Note that verses 7 and 8 are different in the King James translation; Jude 6; Rev. 12:1-4).

In the original Hebrew text, references to these “sons of God” is not to humans, but to angelic beings (Job 1:6, 2:1, 38:7; Luke 20:35-36). Jewish historian, Josephus, wrote in Antiquities 1.3.1, concerning this passage that “Angels accompanied with women and begat sons.” This was also the view of both the Hebrew, and the early Christians, until the fourth century (when it was determined that this understanding seemed too much like the Egyptian and Greek myths of supernatural beings). Of course, those myths were a result of perverting the true salvation message (originally given in the Zodiac by God, and passed down to Noah’s children)—just as modern teachers are making excuses for this story of Satan’s evil plan given in the Bible (see the book God’s Plan / Satan’s Plan--Target Truth Ministries.com).

Normal usage of the term “sons of God” is to the host of heaven (angels), and even the earliest Greek translation of the Hebrew, the Septuagint (Hebrew translated into Greek in 300 B.C.), translates “bene ha-Elohim” as referring to “angels,” the host of heaven. There are some who hold to the theory that “sons of God” (here in Genesis), refers to the common title given to kings, or others, of great stature. It is true that this term is commonly applied to an individual in leadership, as an honorary title. Jesus was called “The Son of God,” not because He is a physical descendant, or creation of God the Father, but because Jesus is the King of Kings, the highest of all priests, and the greatest of all prophets. Son of God, in this context, is an honorary title given to an individual. The Father/Son relationship between God the Father, and God the Son, is used to describe the position of Jesus when He took the form of human flesh. Thus, limiting Himself for a short period of time. Jesus is, in fact, the uncreated, eternal God—the Creator of all (Col. 1:16; John 1:3; Heb.1:2). All the historical accounts, from both the Hebrew and the early Christians, use this term (sons of God), to refer to angels in this context of Genesis 6. Also, the next event that follows, is the destruction of all mankind, including all the babies, as a result of these births to the “sons of God” (the angels). If these were just rich spoiled kids of kings, God would not need to kill all the babies. There are no Scripture references to “sons of God” (plural), being an honorary title for kings, priests, etc.—only a singular individual reference. Therefore, the “sons of God” is a direct reference to angels.

E. Kantsch, in “Gesenius ‘Hebrew Grammar’(1922:418), states “ben” (of beni ha-elohim) properly means “beings of the class, or tribe, of elohim,” not “sons of God,” because “sons” actually refers to “adherents.” Whereas, “ben” denotes membership. The Jewish priests were totally opposed to pagan polytheistic stories about gods, and yet, they translated the Hebrew “sons of God” as “angels” in the Septuagint. Note that Jesus (who referenced Genesis and Noah), never said that “sons of God” were not fallen angels, as they were referenced in the Septuagint, which Jesus was using. These angels are now chained (2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6). The children born to these unions of angels and women, were called the Nephilim, or giants (Hebrew—nephel, nefeel). These became the sources of demons (evil spirits which need a body). Biblically, this is the reason that God saw total depravity in “mankind”—due to sex with foreign beings resulting in an infected and corrupted, genetically altered DNA, which Jesus could not be born from.

The word for “men” in verse four “men of renown” is the Hebrew word enowsh, which is not the normal Hebrew word used for men in these passages. Enowsh means mortal, weak, wicked, and blood thirsty. The book of Enoch records that the original blood drinkers were the Nephilim. Vampire stories are traced to the Nephilim. Satan has made the sacred blood sacrifice of God a mockery by using the vampire as a mock “imitation.”

Science reports that current studies show lots of interbreeding between so-called “modern” humans and the Neanderthals, and Denisovians (as well as other possible related species--see Target Truth Ministries.com book Science, Origins, & Ancient Civilizations). Jesus tells us that the end-times will be “as in the days of Noah” (Luke 17:26-30). Daniel 2:40-43 also hints at some similar event when “they” shall mingle with the “seed” of men in the end times. So...will there be another attempt to destroy the bloodline/genome of humans in the end times “as in the days of Noah?”

Note that Paul, in 1 Corinthians 11:10, states that women must cover their heads with authority because of the angels. Wearing a veil, and covering her head, expresses her authority over any fallen angel, as she is putting her trust in God’s order and ways, and not submitting to any “angel” (Gal. 1:8-9).

Concerning these strange beings, and other non-biblical references to them, Ancient Egyptian texts refer to the “First Time” (Zep Tepi), the time of creation, as the era of the Neferu (Netheru), which is translated as human beings with god-like abilities. Egyptian drawings and carvings depicting the “staff of life” show the staff never touches the ground. This is to indicate that we are spiritual beings having an earth experience in the mortal flesh, and we will return to heaven. According to J.J. Champollion-Figeac in Wisdom Literature (Paris, 1888), the Egyptian Book of the Dead states that one of the “Company of the gods,” Thoth, built the Great Pyramid according to a design which had descended from heaven. Ancient Sumerian texts speak of highly developed people, who descended to the earth from the heavens, and they developed into a people called the Nephilim. The Akkadians called them the Ilu, or the “High Ones” (per Zecharia Sitchim, Sumerian language specialist).

Greek historian, Herodotus, wrote 2,400 years ago of the Great Pyramids white casing stones being finely fitted together, polished, and engraved with signs and symbols. Jewish historian, Josephus, wrote 2,000 years ago of these, and noted the engravings recorded “a peculiar sort of wisdom.” Eighth century Arab astronomer, Abou Balkhi, recorded in a scroll held at the Oxford University library, that the Great Pyramid was inscribed with the wonders of physics. The British museum holds a tenth-century manuscript (No. 9576), which records Arab historian Masoudi’s testimony of the Great Pyramid, as having carvings on the casing stones of celestial spheres and stars—their history, and progression. The Alexandrian library holds an eighth-century book about Egypt’s past, called Camoos (Dictionary) of Firazabadi, which records that the Great Pyramid was built before the time of a great flood, in ancient times. Herodotus records in his Histories, that the Great Pyramid showed evidence of saltwater calcification, and sea shells all around the area. This testimony was supported by Danish author, Frederic Norden, in the 1750’s, who noted the great number of shells and oysters covering the plains around the pyramids. It should be noted, that the Nile River has no shellfish, or salt water. The Alexandrian library holds a document written by Arab historian, Ibn Abd Hokm, that claims that some pyramids were built by a king, named Saurid Ibn Salhouk, more than 300 years before a great flood occurred, and that the Great Pyramid was already in existence at that time.

In Genesis 9:3-4, after the flood of Noah, God tells us that eating of meat is now acceptable...just not the blood. God now allows humans to eat meat, but not to consume the blood—the life (Lev. 17:11). Why this change? In the world before the flood, mankind was involved in what Paul describes will also happen in the end times. Those who wish to keep humans away from worshiping the Creator provide humankind with alternatives (other ways), and these alternatives involve commitment to certain pagan actions. In 1 Timothy 4:1-3, Paul describes the “Doctrine of Demons,” which will prevail during the end times. These include the forbidding to marry, and the requirement not to eat meat, and these practices can also be traced to the very beginnings after the flood (perhaps even before the flood—Gen. 6).

Concerning marriage, Nimrod (one of the “giants”), is credited with forming celibate orders of priests, which the Babylonians later also adopted. God’s plan was to see people marry each other and raise children to worship Him—flesh (mortal) humans who would receive the truth of God, and receive their spirit (John 3:6--be born again), and who would die (Gen. 2:17). Satan’s purpose was to destroy God’s plan (destroy normal human flesh), and marriage was therefore promoted as something to do with your “spiritual” god (angels—Gen. 6). In the pagan belief, a person who marries another human being does not elevate themselves. In order to elevate oneself and enter a higher plain, a person needs to marry a higher being...an angel or god. Biblical marriage of one man to one woman is seen in pagan circles as idolatry of the flesh above the spirit. This pagan ideal still exists in our own culture today. In the end times, just as Jesus tells us that evil will rise again (Matt. 24:37-39), Paul is also telling us that there will be those who hold to marrying only the higher order of spirit beings, and to deny marriage to another human—a return to the “Days of Noah.” Satan wants to have it both ways concerning marriage...either by denying marriage to another human through pagan practices, or by perverting God's plan for marriage with same sex unions, or polygamy (see Marriage & Divorce Study). Satan's purpose is to destroy God's means of saving the host of heaven who fell, who need to be born flesh (mortal), hear the truth of God (Rom. 10:13-17), and then be "born again" (John 3:1-7). Without God's plan of marriage, the plan of salvation is corrupted (Gen. 6, and see Marriage & Divorce Study--Target Truth Ministries.com).

Concerning the eating of meat, we can look to the ancient teachings of the Hindu and Buddhist faiths, which require a person not to eat flesh. This is due to the pagan belief in reincarnation, and the belief that you might be eating a person re-entering life in the form of another animal, or insect. Another pagan belief is that when one dies they become part of all of nature (live on in oneness with nature--pantheism). When God allows for humans to consume meat, it is a way of doing away with Satan's pagan teaching of reincarnation, as mankind enjoys these foods and ignores the pagan ways (see Truth Matrix--Target Truth Ministries.com).

The book of Enoch records that the original blood drinkers were the Nephilim. Vampire stories are traced to the Nephilim. Satan makes God's sacred blood sacrifice a mockery by using the vampire as a mock "imitation" of sacrificing one life to save another. God forbids consumption of blood because life itself (being sacred), is represented in the blood (Lev. 17:11). Blood (life) is the sacrifice of Jesus to cover our sins.

This Halloween, let us consider the source of evil—Satan...and the fact that only Jesus cares enough for us to die for us so that we can be welcomed back into His kingdom for all eternity, as opposed to being separated and isolated from God for all eternity—hell. The evil continues for now. Soon it will end – see 2068 in God's Plan / Satan's Plan @ Target Truth Ministries.com. Do you still want to "enjoy" the evil around you with Halloween parties—perhaps even welcoming a giant or two? I pray not! Know your Bible - know your history.
